Overseas Scholarships - 1947-48 -
Selection of candidates.

Under the Govt. of India, Education
Dept. Scheme of sending students on scholarships to foreign countries for undergoing advanced studies in subjects connected with development plans, this Govt. sponsored 44 students in 1945-46 and another 47 in 1946-47. The Central Govt. have decided to continue their Scheme in 1947-48 also. Madras have agreed to continue to sponsor students in 1947-48 also. The Govt. of India have allotted 35 Scholarships to this Province and have requested this Govt. to take immediate steps to set up the machinery for selection in order that selections of candidates are completed in time and the names recommended by it for the Scholarships are communicated to the Central Govt. before 28.2.1947.
They have also requested that advertisement inviting applications may be put out by 30.11.46.

For the Selections made in 1945-46 and in 1946-47, the Govt. appointed a Special Selection Committee constituted as follows:-

- | | 1945-46 | 1946-47 |
|---|---|------------------------------|
| 1. A Member of the Board of Revenue in Charge of Post-war Reconstruction (Chairman) | (Ld) Mr. A.R. MacEwen
OBE, ICS. | Mr. B. Bennett
ICS. |
| 2. A Member of the Madras Public Service Commission | Diwan Bahadur T.M.
Narayanawami Pillai | Diwan B.
J.H.N.
Pillai |
| 3. The District Public Instruction Officer | D. B. D. | P. S. K. |

for orders whether the Constitution of the Selection Committee for 1947-48 Scholarships also may be on the above lines.

It is understood that the work of "Postwar reconstruction" has been transferred from the Board of Res. to the Regional Director of Resettlement.

Mr. E. Bennett who was the Chairman of the Committee three years is at present Collector of Chingleput. Orders may be taken as to who shd. be apptd. as Chairman for the Committee to be constituted.

Dr. Sarvoor is the D.P.I. and may be apptd. as a member. As was done on the last occasion,

M.P.S.C. may be asked if they can spare the services of one of its Members and if so, to intimate the name of a Member.

Dept. P.W.D., Public and Finance may see for remarks before circulation.

Allowing 3 weeks from 20.11.46 for receipt of applns. and another 3 weeks thereafter for tabulation and typing, the Selection Committee will probably meet for the first time about 15.1.47.

Orders appointing the Selection Committee may therefore be issued well in advance of 15.1.47.
