6-7/8 I am now studying in the senior Intermediate class of the Madras Christian College. I was granted financial assistance for my junior Intermediate class, i.e. 1945-46. My father who is now in Rangoon (Burma) is not able to spare me anything for my studies since he is now unemployed.
My grandfather who was getting Rs 110/- from the Protector of Emigrants for maintenance, expired on the 10th of February, leaving his wife, one daughter a grant daughter and myself. He was all along maintaining me, now I have none to help me financially. I am not receiving any letters from my father. I solely depend upon the Government for further prosecution of my studies. In these circumstances, I only request the Government to consider my case sympathetically and favourably.
