C.K. Nair
B.6.A/47 dated 27-2-1947

I beg to inform you that I am not employed at present and not getting any maintenance allowance, other than the education allowance for my two daughters under reference.

In this connection, I further beg to state that out of my seven children six of them are studying in different colleges and schools four being in hostels.

Owing to the present unsettled conditions in Burma I cannot make up my mind to return in the near future.

I, therefore, request that the allowance may be continued to enable my two daughters referred above (Miss. Margaret M. Nair and Miss. Angeline Nair) to continue their studies.

I have no other source of income at present.
