Re. No. 425 E/47

Dated 31-3-1947.

Sir,

Sub: Advance - General Provident Fund - Sri K. Aravamudha
Iyengar, Lecturer in History, Government Arts College, Rajahmundry - Rs. 900/-.

Sri K. Aravamudha Ayyengar, Lecturer in History, Government Arts College, Rajahmundry, has applied for an advance of Rs. 900/- (Rs. Nine hundred only) to meet the expenses in connection with his daughter's marriage. This is an obligatory item of expenditure which it is incumbent on him to perform, and it is reported that he has no other source of income to meet the expenditure. The object of the advance falls under Rule 14(1)(a)(iii) of the General Provident Fund (Madras) Rules. The amount applied for, though it does not exceed the three month's pay of the subscriber (his pay being Rs. 380/-), exceeds half the balance at the credit of the subscriber in his General Provident Fund account which was Rs. 1011-2-0 on 28th February 1947. Therefore, the advance can only be sanctioned for special reasons to be recorded in writing i.e., under Rule 14(i)(c) of the General Provident Fund (Madras) Rules by the authority competent to dismiss the subscriber. Vide paragraph 2 of the sixth schedule to Rule 14 of the General Provident Fund (Madras) Rules.

2. In view of the circumstances explained above, and the high cost of articles now prevailing, I have the honour to recommend that you may be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for the grant of the advance applied for by the subscriber. I am satisfied that the subscriber needs the present advance, which may be recovered in 12 instalments of Rs. 75/- each as desired by the subscriber.

3. A copy of the remarks of the Accountant-General on the application is also enclosed.

R. Narasimhan
for Director of Public Instruction.

Copy of the remarks of the Accountant-General, Madras.

The advance applied for is covered by the balance at the credit of the applicant which was Rs. 1011-2-0 on 28th February 1947. The object of the advance falls under Rule 14 1(a)(iii) of the General Provident Fund (Madras) Rules.

As the advance applied for exceeds half the balance at the credit of the applicant, the advance can be sanctioned under Rule 14(1)(c) ibid only for special reasons recorded in the sanction orders by the authority competent to dismiss the subscriber, vide paragraph 2 of the sixth schedule.

The advance may be ordered to be recovered in 12 equal instalments of Rs. 75/- each together with interest. The enclosures received along with endorsement under reference are returned herewith.

R. Narasimhan
for Director of Public Instruction.
