Emergency training course for general education.

* 87 Q.—BEGUM SULTAN MIR AMIRUDDIN: Will the Hon.
the Minister for Education be pleased to state—

(a) the number of additional students that have joined the emergency training course this year as compared to the number of students that joined the secondary-grade training course in the preceding year; and

(b) whether the Government propose to revive next year the two-year secondary training course that has been suspended?

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

“(a) There are now 1,782 students undergoing the emergency secondary-grade training course this year, as against 1,241 students who underwent the course in the preceding year.

“(b) No. The matter is under consideration.”

BEGUM SULTAN MIR AMIRUDDIN:—“In view of the fact that a large number of potential women teachers is lost to the teaching profession, will the hon. Minister consider the desirability of reviving the two-year secondary training education course and continuing it side by side with the emergency training course?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

“The matter now under the consideration of Government is to go back to the old system of two years, Sir.”

ABDUL HAMEED KHAN SAHIB BAHADUR:—“What are the further steps taken by the Government to increase the number of students for training as teachers?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

“The present revision of salaries, Sir.”
