The scale of pay sanctd. previously for the Manual Trg. Experts was Rs. 70-130 - which was the ^{old} scale for the Asst. to the Manual Trg. Expert. Since the Asst.'s scale has been revised from 1-1-47 into Rs. 80-170, that scale together with the special pay may be fixed for the post. Fin. may be sent to Legal also for scrutiny.

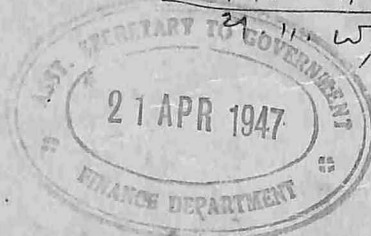

As the post is not within the purview of the Commission, that body need not be consulted on the draft rules before issue.

10/4/47

Please see the correspondence in the CF and the draft order put up by E.P.H. on pp. 1-2 above with reference to the framing of ad hoc rules for the post of Manual Training Expert. This post of expert is concerned mainly with the pay & special pay allowed to the Manual Training Expert. The post of Manual Training Expert was originally in the post of Assistant to the M.T.E. has been in the M.E.S.S. The post of M.T.E. has been relegated to the M.E.S.S. temporarily.

Sir,

Sub: PENSION--Sri K.A.Ramanathan, Retired Manual Training Expert, Teachers' College, Saidapet-Counting of Special pay of Rs.25/- for purpose of pension--Request of.

Ref: --:oOo:--

While sending proposals to the Accountant General, Madras for the sanction of pension to Sri K.A.Ramanathan, Retired Manual Training Expert, Teachers' College, Saidapet, the Special pay of Rs.25/- p.m. drawn by him was taken into account and the statement of Average emoluments were worked out. But the Accountant General, Madras while intimating the applicant's eligibility to pension had omitted this Special pay stating that the question whether the Special pay would count for pension or not would be examined by him and that further intimation in that regard would be sent in due course. A pension of Rs.53.45 nP. per mensem was sanctioned to the applicant as per the advice of the Accountant General, Madras without taking into account the Special pay for purpose of calculation of average emoluments. The Accountant General, Madras in his letter No.DA.XVIII-A.Edn.III/1-18/59-60/1256 dated 15-3-1960 (copy enclosed) has reported that since the Special pay of Rs.25/- per mensem sanctioned in G.O.Ms.No.899 Edn. dated 1-5-47 has not been included in the Manual of Special pay and Allowances Volume II, orders of Government, if any declaring that the Special pay can be counted for purpose of pension may be furnished to him to take further action in the matter. There appears to be no specific orders of Government in this point.

The Principal, Teachers' College, Saidapet is of opinion that the Special pay was paid to the Manual Training Expert as it carried higher responsibility and that there is sufficient justification to show that it is in the way of "duty allowance". In this connection, it is submitted that in the case of Sri Md.Habibullah who retired as Manual Training Expert the Special pay of Rs.25/- was taken into account for purpose of calculation of pension.

In the circumstances, I request that Government may kindly instruct the Accountant General, Madras to admit the Special pay of Rs.25/- for purpose of pension in the case of Sri K.A.Ramanathan, Retired Manual Training Expert, Teachers' College, Saidapet. It is also requested that Government may kindly include the said Special pay of Rs.25/- in the Manual of Special pay and Allowances Volume II so that further objection of the kind may be prevented.

Yours faithfully,

for Director of Public Instruction

dated 1-4-47, wherein Govt. have accorded sanction for the payment to the holder of the post of Manual Training Expert a special pay of Rs.25/- (Rupees Twenty five only) per mensem, and to state as follows:

The special pay has not been included in the Manual of Special Pay and allowances (Vol.II). It is not known whether the special pay is of the nature of "Duty allowance". Orders of Government, if any, declaring that the special pay can be counted for purposes of pension may please be furnished to enable this office to take necessary further action.

The letter of the D.P.I. on pp. 1-5 C.F. may be perused.

2. Prior to February 1947, the post of Manual Trg. Expert in the Teachers' College, Saidapet, was borne on the Madras Ednl. Service, on the scale of Rs. 200-700. There was a non-gazetted post of Asst. to the Manual Trg. Expert on the scale of Rs. 70-10/2-130. When the M.E.S. post of M.T.E. fell vacant in November '46 consequent upon the retirement of its then incumbent, it was not filled up. In its place, a post with the same designation (M.T.E.) was created in the Madras Ednl. Subordinate Service on the scale applicable to the post of Asst. to the M.T.E. (i.e. Rs.70-130) plus a special pay of Rs.25/- P.M.--vide G.O.Ms. No.212 Edn. dated 6.2.47. The Special pay was sanctioned obviously in consideration of the arduous nature of the duties assigned to the post. [For the duties of the post, vide para 3 on p. 26 C.F.(G)]. Thus, without the addition of the Special pay, there would be no difference in the emoluments of the M.T.E. and of his Asst. The Special pay was taken into account by the A.G. for the purpose of calculating pension in the case of Sri Md. Habibullah who retired from the post in 1945. Sri K.A. Ramanathan succeeded Sri Habibullah in the post of M.T.E. The A.G. has not now taken the spl. pay into account in calculating Sri Ramanathan's pension.

For the reasons that it has not been included in the Manual of Spl. Pay and Allowances (Vol. II) and that it is not known if the spl. pay is or the nature of duty allowance. These reasons are strange. In view of ^{overleaf} M above the Special pay may be classified as Class I Spl. pay and included in the M.T.A. Rules, Vol. II.
