Sir, the Sub: T.A. - Madras Travelling Allowance Rules - First
class Railway travel to the Inspectresses of Girls Schools - withdrawal of the concession - recommended.

class Railway travel to the Inspectresses of Girls
Schools - withdrawal of the concession - recommended.

The Inspectresses of Girls' Schools, in addition to the general concession granted to all women officers in Government service with reference to note 2 to Appendix I of the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules, are included under Grade III officers for purposes of railway travel - vide note C. to grade iii in Appendix I of the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules.

Whatever might have been the reason for the grant of this special concession, conditions have now so changed that there is hardly any justification for its continuance. No Inspectress is now in the Indian Educational Service and the Inspectresses are also now on the same scale of pay as the District Educational Officers, whereas formerly their maximum was only Rs.500/- as against Rs.700/- or Rs.800/- of the District Educational Officers. Under the present rules even a junior inspectress on a pay of Rs.200 is entitled to 1st class railway travel whereas a senior District Educational Officer getting Rs.750/- p.m. can claim only 2nd class railway fare for his journey on duty. Hence I consider that there is no necessity for this discrimination between the officers of the same rank whether they belong to the cadre of District Educational Officers or Inspectresses. Further, on the railways separate accommodation is provided for ladies and ladies in the second class very often travel in greater comfort than men in the first class. Now that for purposes of pay men and women are on the same scale, there is no necessity for this special privileges given to the women in the case of railway travelling.
N.t.o.

In view of the above consideration, I have the honour to recommend that Government may be pleased to withdraw with immediate effect the special concession granted to the inspectresses of Girls' Schools with reference to note C to grade iii in Appendix I of the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules.

The D. P. I. has recommended that the concession allowed to the Inspectresses of Girls' Schools to travel in the next higher class (First class) with reference to note 2 to Appendix I. of the M.T.A rules may be withdrawn immediately. E & P. H. support the proposal. Finance may agree. Amendments to M.T.A rules are issued after orders are passed by the administrative depts. concerned. E & P. H. may therefore issue orders in this case and send a copy of the order together with relevant
