Extract of Proceedings of the Assembly on 27-2-48.

Appointment of a Telugu Pandit in the Queen Mary's College.

* 56 Q.—SRI G. KUMARASWAMI: Will the Hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state—

(a) how long did the Queen Mary's College at Madras work without a Telugu Pandit;

(b) when the Pandit was appointed; and

(c) if no appointment has yet been made, when the appointment will take place?

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

“(a) to (c) There is no post of Telugu Pandit in the Queen Mary's College, Madras. There is one post of Assistant Lecturer in Telugu in the college. The incumbent of the post proceeded on leave from 7th October 1947 to 13th January 1948. The substitute appointed in her place joined duty on 27th November 1947.”

SRI G. KUMARASWAMI:—“Is it not a fact, Sir, that the Telugu students, Queen Mary's College, sitting for public examinations will be greatly handicapped for want of a Telugu Pandit in the college?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“There is a Telugu teacher, Sir.”

SRI GUNTUR NARASIMHA RAO:—“Is it not a fact, Sir, that when there was a vacancy in the post of a Telugu Assistant Lecturer, the Government were not able to fill that place immediately and waited for three months?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“No, Sir; there was no such delay of three months.”

MOHAMED ABDUL SALAM SAHIB BAHADUR:—“Is not Tamil the regional language of Madras, and if so, why provision is made for other languages?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“Because there are girls whose mothertongue is Telugu, Sir.”

MOHAMED ABDUL SALAM SAHIB BAHADUR:—“May I know what is the regional language in the Madras City?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“The hon. Member must have known it by this time, Sir.”

BEGUM SULTAN MIR AMIRUDDIN:—“Is it not a fact, Sir, that whatever may be the regional language, provision has to be made for teaching the students in various languages in Part II?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“If there are sufficient number of students in that class, Sir.”

N. MUHAMMAD ANWAR SAHIB BAHADUR:—“In view of the fact that an Andhra Member has said on the floor of this House that Tamil is the regional language of the Madras City, does it mean that the Andhras will have no more claim to the Madras City?” (Laughter.)

(No answer.)
