Information submitted.

Replies to question No.303 raised in the Madras Legislative Assembly are given below:--

(a) There used to be a training school at Lammasingi in Gudem taluk during 1918-21 and a Sessional School for hill tribes at Narasapatam some time back in 1925.

(b) A batch of 8 students were trained in the training school at Lammasingi. Two of them are now working as teachers in Government Agency Schools. No information is available regarding the other six persons. A number of persons who underwent training in the Sessional School at Narasapatam were given certificates to the effect that they can teach up to IV standard. Some of them were formerly appointed in Government hill schools but they were not fully qualified to teach in Elementary Schools.
Under the rules then in force, such Sessional Certificate holders should qualify themselves by undergoing a further course of training in the lower Elementary Grade but many of them did not qualify themselves. Three such Sessional school certificates holders are at present working on a purely temporary measure as they do not possess the professional qualifications. For want of trained teachers these are being continued.

2. It appears that the starting of these schools was ordered in G.O.No.594 d/ 22-5-1916 but the G.O.is not traceable in this office.

Legislative Assembly Question No. 303 (Starred)

Sri K. Veeranna Padia, M.L.A.

Will the Hon'ble the Minister for Education be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that there used to be a hill training school for the benefit of people of the Agency tracts, and

(b) if so, whether those who underwent training in that school long long ago are now employed as teachers in Agency tracts; and

(c) if not, why not?

EDUCATION AND PUBLIC HEALTH DEPARTMENT

ANSWER

(a) So far as is known, there was a training school at Lemasingi in Gudur Taluk, during 1918-21 and a sessional school for hill tribes at Marasapattam in 1925. A training Section was opened in 1917, in the then Government Secondary School, Bhadrachalam, and was transferred to the Polavaram High School in 1925.

(b) and (c) A batch of 8 students was trained in the training school at Lemasingi, of which two are now working as teachers in Government Agency Schools. As regards the rest there is no information. Of those who had training at the Sessional School at Marasapattam, a number were given certificates as qualified to teach up to the IV standard and appointed in Government hill schools. But as most of them did not qualify themselves for appointment in elementary schools by undergoing the teachers training course of the lower elementary grade, they are not appointed in elementary schools except on a temporary sukshma muksh basis. The number of those appointed on this basis and now in service is three. In the Polavaram School, people of the Agency were trained as teachers and employed as such in the Agency Schools. No hill tribes pupils applied for admission in this school for receiving training at any time.

Please see the question at p10, the reports from the Agents to the Govt., West Godavari, Vijayaputnam and East Godavari at pp 10, 11 + 17 etc respectively of the current file, sent with reference to the memo at p10. The Agent to Govt., West Godavari, says that there was no hill training school in the Duvvuram Agency Taluk. The Agent to Govt., East Godavari says that a training section opened in the Bhadrachalam Taluk school in 1917 and subsequently transferred to Duvvuram Taluk. ~~As it was not meant for the training people,~~ ~~it was not meant for the training people.~~

CF

But as it was not marked for the special benefit of the hill people, it could not be the one referred to in the question. Obviously the training school so referred to, must be that mentioned by the Agent to Govt. Vijayaputnam with his report at p11 etc.

A/2 (cont) In 1915, the Agent to Govt.
Vijayaputnam, with a view to improving elementary education in the agency, made of the district proposed the establishment of 'hill schools' and 'hill training schools' exclusively for the benefit of the indigenous hill tribes.
The details of the scheme are to be found at p2 of A. In G.O. 594 Ed. dated 29.5.1916 the Govt. generally agreed to the scheme.
The 'hill training schools' were intended to train teachers for the hill schools. The collector Vijay. now reports that with reference to the scheme sanctioned in the G.O., a training school at Hanumanthi in Gudem Taluk and a Sessional School at Navasaputnam were maintained for the benefit of the hill tribes, and has furnished certain information regarding the former pupils of the two schools. But the information furnished by the collector is far from complete. For instance he has not stated how many schools - 'hill schools' and 'hill training schools' - were opened with reference to the G.O. of 1916, whether the two schools mentioned were the only two opened, whether a 'sessional school' is the same as a 'hill school' or a 'hill training school', for how long the schools were continued, and when they closed. The D.P.O. has stated already

A/5

But he has no information in the subject and it seems doubtful whether any additional ~~word~~ information would be available in the collector's office. It is therefore for consideration whether a reply to the question may be on the lines of the collector's report. Subject to orders the draft reply below is for approval. The information furnished by the Agents, East Godavari (page 179) and West Godavari (page 10 of) may also be incorporated into answer. It may be circulated to H.M. (Edn.) and H.F. for approval.
