*Q. No. 809.

Will the Hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state:-

(a) whether the creation of M.E.S.
part III in Telegu depend on the number of students or on the policy of the Government to raise the status of the Indian Languages;

(b) whether it is a fact that an enquiry was made by the D.P.I. in September 1946 as regards the number of students who offered to take Indian Languages in Part III
in B. A. Course in Queen Mary's College;

(c) what is the number of students who then offered to take Sanskrit, Telegu and Tamil as their Part III subjects;

(d) what was the number of students applications received for Part III Telegu and Tamil this academic year; and

(e) how many of them were rejected
and for what reasons?

Sir,

Sub: Assembly question No.809 - Starred - creation of Madras Educational Service's post in languages - Madras Educational service post for Telugu in the Queen Marys College, Madras.
Ref: Government Memo No.85259-1/47A Edn., dated 22-12-47.

I have the honour to state that at present Part III languages are not available in the Queen Marys College, Madras proposals for the opening of Part III Tamil for the B.A. in 1948-49 have been submitted to Government as a Part II Scheme.

2) The enquiry of the Director of Public Instruction referred to in clause (b) of the question refers to the number of students offering Part II languages in the B.A. and Intermediate.

3) There are 61 students offering Telugu under Part II of the B.A. and Intermediate classes.
