No.P.2. 1373/47 dated 7-11-47

Sir,

Sub: Stationery - Superintendents of Agricultural Research Stations - Declaration as separate units for supply.

In G.O.No.Mis. 380 Development dated 30th January 1947 Government have renewed sanction for the appointment of the staff mentioned below to each of the nine Agricultural Research Stations at Samalkota, Maruteru, Palur, Tindivanam, Keilpatti, Aduthurai, Tirurkuppam, Nanjanad and Hagari.

1. One Superintendent, (2) One Typist & (3) One Peon

Gazetted Superintendents have been so far posted to the following Agricultural Research Stations and they have taken charge of the respective stations.

Samalkota, Maruteru, Palur, Tindivanam, Keilpatti Aduthurai, Nanjanad, Hagari.

3. The Superintendent of Stationery, Madras has now suggested that Government sanction might be obtained to introduce the Offices of the Superintendents of Agricultural Research Stations as separate units for supply of stationery. I therefore request that Government may be pleased to admit the Superintendents of the above eight Agricultural Research Stations as separate units for supply of stationery articles with reference to Rule 14 of the Madras Stationery Manual Volume I.
