Sir,

Subj: Appointment of Professor- Law College Madras - Notification by Madras Public Service Commission D/ 31-10-46 - Published in Fort St. George Gazette D/ 5-11-46 - Age limit - relaxation of the rule - in case of Lecturers already in service.

I, E. Venkatesam, Part- time lecturer, Law College Madras, beg to invite your kind attention to the following for your kind consideration and favourable orders:-

I am an applicant for the above post. I joined the Madras Law College as a part-time lecturer in July 1942, even before completing 35 years, and I have been working in that capacity since then. The notification in question states that the candidate should not have completed the age of 35 years on 1-7-1946, but temporary Government servants are permitted to deduct their continuous temporary service from their age for purposes of the age limit. According to that rule I am within the age limit, as my date of birth is 9-5-1908, and I joined the Law College on 15-7-1942. If however the rule does not exactly cover the cases of lecturers in the Law College, I pray that it may be made applicable, or the age limit may be relaxed in the case of the lecturers already in service.

As the last date for receipt of applications is 28-11-46, I pray that early orders may kindly be passed and communicated to the Madras Public Service Commission.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your obedient servant
Ratesam

Law College lecturers are not permanent Government servants. And therefore they must of necessity be temporary Government servants. Any other interpretation would lead to the absurd result of not permitting members of the temporary staff to try for these permanent posts.

Sri E.Venkatesam, Part-time Lecturer, Law College, Madras, recently subd. a representation to Govt. that the age-limit prescribed for appt. to the post of Professor in that College might be relaxed in his favour so that his application to the Commn. for that post forwarded with my letter No. 72642-A-1, dated 26.11.46, might be considered. When the request was pending with Govt., your letter cited above, stating that none of the ~~3~~ three prima facie qualified candidates who were examined by the Commission was successful~~l~~, was recd. ~~The Govt. think that, 'in view of their there being no suitable candidate available for the post', there would be a case for the relaxation applied for by Sri Venkatesam if he is finally selected~~. I am directed to request you to be ~~xxx~~ so good as to inform me whether, ~~in the circumstances~~ in view of ~~the facts~~ of there being no suitable candidate available for the post, the Commission has any objection to taking up now Sri Venkatesam's application also and proceeding with it, on the understanding that the Govt. would be prepared ~~thxxx~~ to consider the question of relaxation of the age-rule in his behalf in the event of his selection.

To

The Hon'ble Minister for Law and Education,
Government of Madras, Fort St. George,
Madras.

Sir,

I offer my services for the post of the Professor of Hindu Law in the Law College, Madras.

I am a graduate of the University of Mysore and having secured the highest marks in all the three Divisions of the B.A. Degree Examination, I was awarded six gold medals. I am also a Master of Laws of the University of Madras. I stood first in the Presidency at the B.L. Degree Examination held by the University of Madras in 1934 and I was awarded three gold medals and two prizes, including the "Sir V. Bhashyam Aiyengar Gold Medal" for proficiency in Hindu Law. The University of Madras also awarded the "Sir T. Muthuswami - Aiyar Scholarship" to me for studying for the M. L. Degree Examination and I took my M.L. Degree in 1936.

I have been practising as an advocate of the Madras High Court since December 1936. During 1937 - 1938, I collaborated with the late Mr. S. Srinivasa Aiyengar in the compilation of the 10th Edition of "Mayne on Hindu Law and Usage". I have, besides my own work at the Bar, been also associated with eminent lawyers of the Madras High Court in the conduct of heavy cases and also with The Rt. Hon'ble Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru during his conduct of the Bodinayakanur Appeals in the High Court of Madras. Copies of testimonials from them are appended herewith. I am aged 35 years.

I request that my application may be favourably considered.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Madras,
March 18, 1947.

19 Albert Road,

Allahabad,

24th October 1945.

I have much pleasure in stating that during my donduct of the Bodinayakanur case in the Madras High Court I came into close contact with Mr.V.Ramaswami Aiyar, B.A.,M.L., who was my junior colleague. He gave me ungrudging help which I valued very much. His knowledge of law is much above that of the average lawyer. He has got a great command over case-law, is extremely intelligent and is possessed of a very acute intellect. During private consultations I found that he had a very firm grasp of legal principles and analytical powers of a very high order. Luck favouring he should rise to the highest rung of the ladder in course of time. I believe he has in him the making of a fine lawyer and a fine advocate. I should very much like to hold him up as an example to other juniors. I wish him the best of luck in the profession.

I have known Mr.V.Ramaswami, advocate, Madras High Court, for some years. He had a very distinguished career both in the Arts and in the Law course. He instructed me in some cases. He is quick-witted, has a very thoroughknowledge of case law and is industrious to a degree. He bears an excellent conduct and character. In my opinion he is very deserving of being appointed District Munsiff.

I have known Mr.V.Ramaswami Aiyar, B.A.,M.L., quite well. He has taken his degree with distinction. He assisted me in preparing the 10th Edition of Mayne's Hindu Law during the whole of them ten or twelve months it took. I formed a very good impression of his ability, energy and industry. He is a brilliant young man, quick and smart and clear headed. As I have known him for some years, I can testify to his excellent conduct and character. I have every confidence he will make a good judicial officer if he is made a District Munsiff.

Mr.V.Ramaswami, B.A.M.L., has been working as my junior for the last five years. He has had a brilliant educational career as can be seen from his numerous medals and certificates. He ably assisted the late Mr.S.Srinivasa Aiyengar in bringing out the Tenth Edition of Mayne's Hindu Law; and I know that Mr.S.Srinivasa Aiyengar had a great idea about his ability and capacity. He has been closely associated with me in the preparation and conduct of heavy cases both locally and in the moffussil and I can confidently say that he fully justifies the record of his academic career. He bears an exemplary character and in my opinion would prove a decided acquisition to the Judicial Service.

Sir,

Sub: Madras Educational Service - Law College, Madras -
Part-time lecturer - Recruitment of - Requesting.

I have the honour to state that with reference to your Confidential letter Ref.No.72762 A.3., dated 10th February 1947 addressed to the Secretary, Madras Public Service Commission, Madras, Sri E. Venkatesan, Part-time Lecturer, Law College, Madras, was subjected to an oral test in the shape of an interview at the Commission's office on 25-3-47. Sri K. Krishna Menon, Principal, Law College, Madras, who represented me at the interview, has reported that his impression was that the intefview was favourable to the candidate. I believe that the Commission would have forwarded by now its recommendation to Government, and if the Government decide to appoint him as Professor of Law in the Madras Educational Service, a part-time Lecturer will have to be appointed in the place of Sri E. Venkatesam. As the Law Coll is re-opening ~~mx~~ on the 15th July 1947, the Principal is anxious that the Part-time Lecturer should be got selected and appointed early enough so that lecture work may not suffer.

2. In the above circumstances I have the honour to request th the Government may be pleased to take necessary steps to recruit a candidate for the post of part-time Lecturer, Law College, Madras, in case Sri E. Venkatesam is appointed to officiate as Professor of Law in the Madras Educational Service.

With reference to the Commission's letter No.822 B1/47-7 dated 1-4-47 addressed to Government, I have the honour to submit the following remarks on the two points contained therein.

2. Starting pay:- Sri E. Venkatesam is now a part-time Lecturer drawing Rs.250/- per mensem as fixed pay. Besides, he is a practising lawyer at the Bar. His request for a starting pay of not less than Rs.500/- per mensem for accepting a more responsible and full-time post of Professor can be considered reasonable especially as he will not be at liberty, as a full time Professor, to practise at the Bar. In this connection, I submit herewith an extract from the Confidential letter dated 19-12-46 received from Sri K. Krishna Menon, the Principal of the Law College, Madras wherein he has explained the need for the provision of a higher starting pay for the post of Professor, Law College, Madras. In the above circumstances, I recommend that the Government may be pleased to grant Sri E. Venkatesam an initial starting pay of Rs.520/ per mensem in the scale of Rs.300--600. I may add that such a higher starting pay has been granted to Sri K. Sreenivasan, the present Officiating Professor of Tele-Communications Engineering, College of Engineering, Guindy, when his pay was fixed at Rs.900/- per mensem in the scale of Rs.600--900 — vide G.O.Ms.No.29 Edn., dated 5-1-1945.

3. Subject requirements:- The Principal, Law College, Madras, was requested to report how the lecture-work would be distributed among the full-time and part-time staff of the college in case Sri E. Venkatesam were to be appointed as Professor. A copy of the Principal's remarks dated 1-5-47 in the matter is submitted herewith. As the proposed distribution of work is satisfactory, in the existing circumstances, there is no objection to the appointment of Sri E. Venkatesam as Professor in regard to the question of subject-requirements also.

4. In regard to the recruitment of a Part-time Lecturer to take the place of Sri E. Venkatesam (vide my recommendation in Confdl. letter R.C.No.1224 C1/47 dated 8-4-47) I submit that no specific qualifications need be required, but a provision in the Commission's Notification inviting applications, may be made to the effect that the selected candidate will be expected to lecture on "Constitutional Law".

Extract from letter dated 19-12-46 of the Principal, Law College, Madras.

It seems to me that we can get good men only if provision is made for the following:-

X X X

The Salary:- The salary now suggested is 300-600. Rs.300 for a full time man is not adequate for Madras. Travancore Law College offers Rs.500-750. And this in Travancore is the salary of a District Judge. Andhra University is paying Rs.750/- and I am told is raising the salary to Rs.1,000/-. This as you know is the recommendation of the Inter-University Board. Even the M.E.S. gives ~~250~~ to 700. This ~~250~~ is for a much younger man, perhaps ten years younger than a Law Professor and if the M.E.S. Professor is in Madras, he gets also a house allowance. He also goes up to 70~~000~~ whereas the Law Professor can expect only 600.

If you want a man with academic distinction you will agree that a better salary than 300 ~~with~~ will have to be provided. Any one with any academic distinction with some work at the Bar would prefer to go out as Munsif to the mofussal rather than take a Professorship in Madras on 300. Mofussal places are cheaper in the first place; and in the second place, the Munsif can hope to become a District Judge in due course.

At the Bar, even if you don't have much of a practice, at 35 a youngster with academic distinction has hopes of one day getting to the top and at that age he is certain to be reluctant to give up his prospects and get into a back-water like this Professorship on a starting salary of 300. I may remind you in this connection that when Madhavan Nair, Lakshmana Rao, Zynuddin, Kunhi-Raman etc., were Professors under the old regime they were paid Rs.500 plus liberty to practice. And it is no wonder that we can't find suitable applicants when we offer 300 without practice.

Copy of D.O. letter dated 1-5-47 from the Principal. Law College, Madras.

With reference to your letter about Mr. E. Venkatesam - in promoting a Lecturer to one of the full-time Professorship, we cannot insist too rigidly on special qualifications, for that would mean that when I retire, the next Principal ~~should have the~~ should have the identical qualifications that I have, and that when the Vice-Principal retires the next Vice-Principal can only be a specialist in Criminal Law, the subject which the present Vice-Principal takes. And therefore if Mr. Venkatesam is promoted he will continue to lecture on the subject he is now dealing with, namely, Torts and he would be given an additional subject for the B.L. - Land Tenure - which he will be asked to read up before the college reopens. As regards Hindu Law we have a part time Lecturer who is a Hindu Law M.L. who is now taking Land Tenure (Hindu Law and Land Tenure being one group under the old M.L.) and he will be asked to take Hindu Law.

As for Constitutional Law I don't ~~kn~~ think any specialists are available and therefore I shall have to be content with the best that I can get - a first class or a second class B.L. and ask him to read it up. The rules provide for first and second class men only unless they are M.Ls. and I would therefore suggest that no special qualification need be required from possible applicants. It would be enough if the advertisement states that the selected lecturer will be expected to lecture on Constitutional Law - if such a clause can be added in the notification.

With reference to your letter cited, I am to enclose a copy of the "Information for candidates" dated 30-10-46 containing the detailed particulars supplied to intending applicants. It was not until about three weeks after that date that the Government in paragraph 2 of their letter No. 50272-A5, dated 14/20th November 1946 requested the Commission to select a Specialist in Constitutional and Hindu Law for the post. As the special rules for the post did not prescribe any specialist qualification in Constitutional and Hindu Law, the Commission did not consider it necessary to amend its "Information for candidates" which it had already issued, with reference to the subsequent request from the Government. It, however, decided to keep the request in view when making the selection. As already reported, no specialist in Constitutional and Hindu Law was available from among the applicants.

With reference to the Memorandum cited above I have the honour to state that the existing arrangement as ordered in G.O.No.1915, Edn., dated 1st September 1947 may be continued till the 31st of March 1948.

2) As regards the action to be taken for the recruitment of a Professor, I may submit that as in the case of Professors in the Colleges of Engineering, Guindy, no age-limit need be prescribed, or at any rate, the existing age-limit of 35 years may be raised to 40. The present scale of pay for the post of Professor, Law College, Madras is Rs.300 -- 30/2 --360--40/2--600. While there may not be sufficient justification to place this post on the same scale of pay granted to Professors* in the Engineering College, I suggest that the scale of pay for this post may be revised as Rs.500--50/2--800, i.e., on a par with the post of Vice-Principal, Law College, Madras. In this connection I may point out that in my R.C.No.7865-C.1/46, dated 30-9-1946, I have recommended a scale of pay of Rs.500--50/2--800--E.B.--100/2--1,000 for the posts of Chief Professors in the Presidency College, Madras when the new specialist cadre is constituted. I consider that if the age-limit is raised and the scale of pay made more attractive as suggested above it will be possible to get qualified and suitable men for the post of Professor of Law College, Madras.

The Principal, Law College, Madras, reports that under present conditions it will be impossible to get a candidate who has specialised in Roman Law. He, therefore, states that it will be enough if the person selected is willing to undertake the teaching of Roman Law. C.No.72762. From the D.P.I., N.R.C.No.11461-C1/46, dated 25-11-46.

M.E.S. - Post of Prof., Law College - ~~Appt~~ - A Request for exemption from age-limit.

The subst. vacancy in the post of Prof., Law College, which will occur ~~after 31-3-1947,~~ on 20/5/47 has been advertised by the M.P.S.C. for direct recruitment. The age-limit for appt. to this post is 35. In addn. to putting down in its notfn. this age, the Commn. has also specified, among other things, that:

> "tempy. Govt. servants (including those apptd. under the emergency [illegible].) who may be discharged consequent on the abolition of tempy. posts or to make vacancies available for war service men or to redress over recruitment of particular communities or staff generally in particular years will be allowed to deduct their continuous tempy. service from their age for the purpose of the age-limit".

This concession has been allowed, apparently in view of the orders in the G.O. at "I", para 6.

839 - P.(s)
5.4.46

2. Sri E.Venkatesam, part-time Lecturer, Law College, who has now exceeded 35 yrs., too, applied for the post, thro' the proper channel (Govt.). In his representation in the C.F., p.1 he presumes that the concession refd. to above would apply to him, since he joined the part-time Lecturer's post before completing his 35th yr., and requests, that, if his presumption is not correct, the concession may be made applicable, or the age-limit relaxed, in the case of part-time Lecturers already in service. The Principal of the College has mentioned that Law College Lecturers are not permanent Govt. servants and that therefore "they must of necessity be tempy. Govt. servants.". It may be stated that, though the Commn. has been making recruitment to part-time Lecturers posts also, those posts are outside the scope of the statutory rules and they are governed by the rules at p.19 of the College Calendar (put up) - cf. also the notfn. at "I"/11. [No age-limit is prescribed for appt. as part-time Lecturers and they are at liberty to practice. Their pay is Rs.250 p.m.] In view of these, it seems wrong to hold the view that they are "Govt. servants" (tempy.or permanent or even "emergency")- in the ordinary sense of the term. Apart from this question, Sri Venkatesam's case does not satisfy any of the conditions at "N" on p.1 ante. The concession will not, therefore, apply to him and his appln. would naturally have been rejected by the Commission.

3. The request for relaxation in Sri Venkatesam's favour of the age-rule remains to be considered next. It is usual to relax the age-limit only if no technically qualified candidate has applied for a post - i.e., if there are sufficent public grounds - cf.pp.3-5 N.F. of "G". In its letter in the L.F., the Commn. has reported that applns. have been recd. from 3 candidates who are prima facie qualified and that it proposes to hold a competitive examn. (interview) on 16-12-46. It is not clear whether only 3 applns. have been recd., including that of Sri Venkatesam, or whether, of the applns. recd., 3 are from prima facie qualified candidates and Sri Venkatesam's appln. has not been included in the no. 3. In any event, it does not seem that a relaxation of the rule would be justified in the case.

4. Pub.(Sep.) may kindly offer their remarks before circn.

P.G. 11.12.

Para 2 above. There seems to be no question of regarding "part time" govt servants as "tempy" or "permanent" for the purpose of the Statutory Rules. Such rules apply only to whole time govt. servants, tempy or permanent - cf. rule 2 of the Madras Civil Services (Classfn., Control & Appeal) Rules - p 18 of M.S. Manual, Vol I. BR No 112. Nor does it appear that para 6 of G.O. No 839 Pub (Ser) 5.4.46 - flag (I) - applies to part time govt. servants.

12/12/46

The age concession allowed in para 6 of G.O. No 839 Pub (Ser) of 5.4.46 applies to holders of temporary posts who may be discharged consequent on the abolition of the posts or to make vacancies available for war service men etc... It does not appear that the part time posts of lecturers (even if they are ~~[illegible]~~ treated as temporary posts) are reserved for war service men or are going to be abolished. ~~as~~ ~~a consequence of~~ Hence there is no question of the existing incumbents of the posts being discharged by war service men. The petr is not therefore eligible for the concession.

The next point is whether this is a fit case for relaxation of the age rule. E&PH are not in favour of relaxation. Probably the petr is the only part-time lecturer who has applied for the post of professor. E&PH may take orders in circulation. H.P.M. should see.

The others too, like him, are over-age.

2. The file may now be circd. to H.M.(Edn.) ~~and~~, as suggested by Public, also to H.P.M. and to H.E., for orders on this Dept.'s proposal to reject Sri Venkatesam's request for relaxation in his favour of the age-rule (of 35) for appt. to the ~~post of Professor~~ Professorship - para 3, p.2 ante.

p.3 ante, bottom

3. Public, by the way, want this Dept. to consider Sri Venkatesam's request in the note at "a" below (presented to the Addl.Ch.Secy.) - viz., that, if orders on his request for relaxation cannot be issued before 16-12-46 (the date of interview by the Commn.), the Commn. may be directed to consider his appln. also, pending issue of ~~final~~ orders of Govt.

~~Ixxmayxbe~~ Three prima facie qualified candidates, as already stated, have applied for the post and it is also now seen from "a" that the Commn. has returned the documents sent by Sri Venkatesam with his appln., on the ground that he has exceeded the age-limit. In the circs., it is for consideration whether, taking orders of H.M.(Edn.) alone first, the Commn. should be told that the Govt. have recd. an appln. from Sri Venkatesam for relaxation of the age-rule, that it will take a little time to pass ~~final~~ orders thereon, that, in the meanwhile, it may be so good as to consider the case of Sri Venkatesam too and that ~~its~~ final selection may ~~however~~ await the issue of orders by Govt. on the qn. of relaxation.

H.M. (Edn.) may kindly pass orders on this point also; & he desires that the way be devised, a communication ~~[illegible]~~ will be sent to the Commission now before the Comm.'s final [illegible] for orders on the case were proposed.

The Madras Pub. Service Commission has since reported that it held the prescribed competitive examn. for the post in question (Professorship, Law College) and that none of the 3 candidates who were examined was successful. In view of this turn the matter has taken, it seems that there is a case for relaxing the age-limit in Sri E.Venkatesam's favour, if the Commission agrees to consider now his application for the post and finally selects him. The Commission may, therefore, be asked as to whether, in view of there being no suitable candidate available for the post, it has any objn. to taking up ~~now~~ Sri Venkatesam's appln. also, on the understanding that, if he is selected as suitable, the Govt. would be prepared to consider the question of relaxation of the rule in his behalf.

The Commission has now reported that Sri E. Venkatesam (Part-time Lecturer) was successful at the oral test held by it, but that he said at the ~~enquiry~~ test that he would accept the post if his starting pay in the scale applicable to the post (viz., Rs.300-30/2-360-40/2-600) ~~is~~ was fixed at not less than Rs.500 ~~which~~ (Rs.500 is not a definite stage in the scale). The Commn. has also reported that ~~the~~ Sri Venkatesam is not a specialist in Hindu or Constitutional Law: while sending the requisition to ~~the~~ Commn. to select a ~~candidate~~ direct recruit for the post, it was asked to recruit a candidate specialized in that branch of law as the present ~~the~~ Professor is handling it in the College. Cf 8 W/2

~~Therefore, the question to be decided now~~ Sri Venkatesam first requested that the age rule might be relaxed so that he might apply to the Commission. Finding that there is no other suitable candidate he has now begun to dictate terms to Govt. It is for orders whether his request for a starting pay of Rs500 (Rs500 is not a stage but only Rs520) will be complied with especially when he has not specialised in that branch of ~~Hindu~~ Law as the present Professor is handling in the College. If it is decided to grant the request his pay may be fixed at Rs480 (a stage in the scale) plus personal pay of Rs20 to be absorbed in future increments.

Attention is in this connection invited to a letter from One Sri V. Ramaswami, an advocate, on page 9 cf applying for the post. He has stated that he is aged 35 years. He is also an M.L. and from the certificates produced by him it would seem that he is highly qualified. But it is not clear why if he is within the age limit and if he fully satisfies all the qualifications he did not apply to the Commission. It is for consideration whether in view of the attitude now taken up by Sri Venkatesam this application should be referred to the Commission.

No action ~~for~~ on the question of filling the Part time lecturer's post now occupied by Sri Venkatesam raised by the D.P.I. at p 12 cf need be taken till Sri Venkatesam's appointment as Professor is settled.

Finance may see before circulation.

15/4/47

It seems necy. to have first the DPI's remarks on the Commn.'s letter, particularly as it is not clear how if Sri Venkatesam is apptd., even after granting his request for higher starting pay, he will be a suitable successor to ~~the Prof~~ the present Prof. who has been handling Hindu Law and Constitutional Law (w). A draft Memo. is subd.

This is an important point.

The D.P.I. has offered his remarks on the Commission's letter.

2. From the standpoint of subject-requirements, the Principal of the Law College and the Director consider that there is no objn. to appointing as Professor Sri E.Venkatesam though he is not a specialist in Hindu Law and Constitutional Law. They, however, state that (if and) when the Part-time Lecturer's post now occupied by Sri Venkatesam is advertised, a provision to the effect that the selected candidate will be expected to lecture on Constitutional Law may be included in the advtt. Action in regard to this matter may be taken after ~~the main question~~ Sri Venkatesam's appt. becomes a certainty.

para 3, cf. 16

cf. 17

3. As already stated, what Sri Venkatesam told the Commission was that he would ~~not~~ accept the post ~~unless~~ if he was offered Rs.500 in the scale of pay of Rs.300-30/2-360-40/2-600. The Dir. considers this demand reasonable and recommends that Sri Venkatesam's starting pay may be fixed as 520 which, unlike Rs.500, is a definite stage in the time-scale. The main reason given by the Dir. for his recommendation is ~~that~~, now, as Part-time Lecturer, Sri Venkatesam is drawing Rs.250 and is at liberty to practice, but that, as Professor, he will be debarred from practicing. Against this reason should be set the fact that as Part-time Lecturer, Sri Venkatesam will be receiving only a fixed pay of Rs.250, whereas as Professor he will be eligible for the benefit of a time-scale of pay rising up to 600 and also for promotion as Vice-Principal and Principal of the college. The Dir. has also sent a copy of the Principal's letter urging for the provision of a higher starting pay for the Professor. As a general question, this should appropriately be considered by the Re-organization Committee. The Dir. has ~~also~~ pointed out in this connection that Sri K.Srinivasan was recruited as Prof. of Elec. Engg. in the Guindy Engg. College on an initial pay of Rs.900 in the scale of Rs.600-900. The special circs. under which Sri Srinivasan was granted Rs.900 will be seen expld. in the Commission's letter at pp.32-33 & 56-57 C.F., and pp.22 & 24-25 N.F., of "J": that case cannot be said to stand on all fours with the present one. The retiring incumbent of the Law College Professor's post, Sri Venkatasubramania Ayyar, was not given any higher starting pay when he was recruited in 1932.

In view of A at p:8 ante & B at cf. 3 above, I do not think there is a case for giving any higher start at all. Please see also further note below where I am suggesting that the case should not be processed at all.

Notwithstanding these, in view of the important fact of there being no other candidate who has been considered by the Commission as suitable, this Dept. may recommend that Rs.400 (i.e., 3 advance increments) may be offered to Sri Venkatesam. The Commn. may be asked to call for a physical fitness certificate, if Sri Venkatesam is agreeable, and the relaxation of the age-rule in his favour may be ordered later. (If he is not willing, the appln. of Sri V.Ramaswami at C.F.9 may be sent up to the Commn. for examination, as a special case, after Pub.(Ser.) sees. 'P' at p:8 ante:- I do not see how this position can be accepted. If it is to be accepted, then, logically, the proper thing to do would be to re-advertise the post without insisting on the candidate being specialist in Hindu Law & Constitutional Law so that there may be an open field for recruitment on that footing, from among duly qualified candidates, instead of the requirements being relaxed for the particular benefit of Sri: Venkatesam — & the age rule also being relaxed in his favour; I suggest accordingly, that that course may be followed now. I am one of the applicants for the post of Professor in the Law College, Madras, advertised in the Fort St.Gazette dated 30-10-1946. According to paragraph.4(c) of the information for candidates, a candidate should not have completed the age of 35 years on 1-7-1946. But, temporary Government servants are allowed to deduct their continuous temporary service from their age for the purpose of the age limit.

I submitted my application to the Madras Public Service Commission through the Principal, Law College, Madras on 23-11-'46, and on the same date, I submitted an application to the Chief Secretary, Government of Madras, through the Principal, Law College Madras (a copy of which is herewith enclosed) for your kind perusal. The Principal, Law College, Madras submitted both the applications to the Director of Public Instruction for being forwarded, in his (Principal's) N.R.C.325/46 dated 23-11-1946.

The Madras Public Service Commission have returned my documents sent along with the application on the ground that I have exceeded the age limit. I understand that the date for interviewing the candidates by the Public Service Commission is fixed for the 16th instant. But, no orders have been passed or communicated to me, on my application submitted to the Chief Secretary to the Government.

I submit that the Part-time Lecturers in the Law College, Madras, are temporary Government servants, as they are not permanent and are not eligible for any of the privileges of the ment servants, and have t appointed eve three years. I joined the Law College, Madras as a Part-time lecturer on 15-7-1942, even before I completed 35 years of age. I therefore submit that the exemption from the age limit provided for in the case of temporary government servants in Paragraph.4(c) applies.

If, however, according to the strict letter of the rule, the exemption clause does not apply, I pray that it may be relaxed under the circumstances stated above.

As already stated the interview by the Public Service Commission, I understand, is fixed for the 16th instant and I therefore pray that favourable orders may be passed urgently requesting the Public Service Commission to consider my application on its merits, if necessary, pending final orders on application to the Government.

To

The Chief Secretary,
Government of Madras,
Fort St.George, MADRAS.

The Principal,

Sir,

Subject: Appointment of Professor - Law College - Madras, Notification by Madras Public Service Commission dated 31-10-46 - Published in Fort St.George Gazette dated 5-11-46 - Age limit - relaxation of the rule - in case of Lecturers already in service.

I, E.Venkatesam, Part-time Lecturer, Law College, Madras, beg to invite your kind attention to the following for your kind consideration and favourable orders:--

I am an applicant for the above post. I joined the Madras Law College as a part-time lecturer in July 1942 even before completing 35 years of age and I have been working in that capacity since then. The notification in question states that the candidates should not have completed the age of 35 years on 1-7-1946, but temporary Government servants are permitted to deduct their continuous temporary service from their age for purposes of the age limit. According to that rule I am within the age limit as my date of birth is 9-5-1908 and I joined the Law College on 15-7-1942. If however the rule does not exactly cover the cases of lecturers in the Law College, I pray that it may be made applicable, or the age limit may be relaxed in the case of the Lecturers already in service.

As the last date for the receipt of the application is 28-11-'46 I pray that early orders may kindly be passed and communicated to the Madras Public Service Commission.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,
