G.O. NO. 142 Edn.,

Dated 20-1-1948.

[Despatch Abstract.]

Text-Book Committee-Book written by Sri V. Venkataraman-Exemption from Rules 56(a) and (b) of the Text-Book Committee Rules-Orders passed.

1947
September meeting.

4. Under Rules 56(a) and (b) of the rules relating to the Text-Book Committee issued in G.O. No. Ms. 1139 Education and Public Health, dated 22.7.1941, the members of the committee shall not write, edit or publish books for use in schools, nor shall books written, edited or published by them be considered by the committee during their membership.

5. Since the author - Sri V. Venkataraman is now a member of the Text-Book Committee his book cannot be considered by the Committee during his membership. Modern History is a new subject introduced in 1946-47 and there are not very many books written in the principal languages and approved by the Committee. The author is a good historian who will be a very useful member to review books on History subject. Further, the series of the books in Tamil written by him, will be incomplete if the books Form VI in Tamil translated by Sri S. Jagannathan is not approved by the Committee.

6. In the circumstances I recommend that Government may be pleased to exempt, as a special case, from the operation of Rules 56(a) & (b) of the Text Book Committee rules, the History book entitled "Modern History for Form VI" in Tamil, written by Sri V. Venkataraman & translated by Sri S. Jagannathan.

7. I may add that in case, the Government are pleased to accept my proposals, care will be taken to see that the member has no hand in the consideration and approval of this book except in a formal way at the general meeting of the Text Book Committee.
