Sub: College - Ethiraj Women's College - Principalship - Mrs. Parthasarathy's services - Lending of.

I have the honour to request that Government may be pleased to sanction the loan of services of Mrs. G. Parthasarathy Lecturer in English in the Queen Mary's College, for appointment as Principal of my college. She is an experienced Lecturer and shall be the Head of the Department of English in the college. I request that, in view of the fact that the college is to be opened anew with low income, Government may also kindly waive the leave salary and pension contributions payable by me to Government during the period of her deputation in my college. It will be rather too much for me with the depleted fee income to pay those contributions also. I am, however, willing to pay other pay and allowances that she is entitled to, such as deputation pay, house rent allowance and dearness allowance. I request that Government may pass early orders on my request.

for Director of Public Instruction.

M.E.S.--Mrs.G.Parthasarathi, offg. Lecturer--Loan of services to Mr.Ethiraj's College.

Mrs.G.Parthasarathi is at present offg. as Lecturer in English in the M.E.S., in the Q.M.C. She does not hold any substantive appt. in the Edn. Dept.; she is however an approved probationer in the category of Asst. Lecturers.

Mr.V.L.Ethiraj, to whom the management of the College for Muslim Women, Madras, was recently transferred by Govt., has requested the loan of Mrs.Parthasarathi's services (on 'foreign service' terms) ^{of say, that the period of loan may be 3 years.} for being utilised in the post of Principal of the Muslim College under his management. The D.P.I. recommends Mr.Ethiraj's request. Some time ~~back~~ back, dearth of experienced English Lecturers was felt in the dept.: cf. papers at "Q". But, now, owing to the change in the staffs of colleges resulting from the transfer of the Muslim College to Mr.Ethiraj, Miss B.Ahalya Bai, who was offg. as English Lecturer in the L.W.T.C., is being reverted to the Subordinate Service. ^{that offg.} She can take the place of Mrs.Parthasarathi. The D.P.I. has apparently satisfied himself that the loan of Mrs.Parthasarathi's services will not be detrimental to the interests of the dept. and also that the condition in F.R. 111(a) is satisfied in the case. This dept. may therefore support the Dir.'s recommendation.

Mr.Ethiraj has further requested that the leave and pensionary contributions to be recovered from him on behalf of Mrs.Parthasarathi may be waived in view of the fact that as the college is to be opened anew with ^{depleted} low income it will be rather too much for him to pay those contributions also. Under F.R.119, the Govt. can remit the contributions due in any specified case. ^{Having regard to the} But, ~~there does not seem to be sufficient justification to invoke that rule in this case.~~ ^{circumstances under which the college was transferred this request also may be complied with.} (For orders.

Mr.Ethiraj is prepared to pay Mrs.Parthasarathi the pay and allowances which she is entitled to under Govt. He may also be required to pay t.a. and holiday ~~t.a.~~ ^{if necessary} admissible to the lecturer under the MTA Rules, grant her joining time

(1) Leave and Pensionary contribution: Mr. Ethiraj has requested the Government to waive the recovery, from him, of contributions towards his leave salary and pension of Mrs. G. Parthasarathy. The reason adduced by him in support of his request is that the college is to be opened anew with a low income. The D.P.I. and the E.&P.H. Department have supported the request. It is submitted that Finance may agree to the contributions being waived for a period of one year, for the present, and the question of continuance of the concession examined again later, provided that the financial position of the College ~~at the end of the period~~ ~~with a view to imposing the above mentioned concession from the following year onwards~~.

done in connection with the organisation of the College. The file may be
