I beg to inform you that I have been offered an appointment as a probationer in the Indian Railway Service of Engineers by the Ministry of Railways, Government of India as a "War Service" candidate

I am therefore obliged to tender my resignation of the present post under you I request you kindly to accept my resignation and issue orders for my immediate relief.

If Mr. Webster is relieved immediately the entire arrangements for the Survey camp commencing on January 5th will be upset. I have therefore persuaded him to stay till the camp is working satisfactorily and I estimate that by the 9th of January 1948 it should be possible to relieve him.
