P.T.O

Copy of letter from Mr. H.C.Papworth, Vice-Chancellor, University of Travancore to Sri D.Sadasiva Reddi, M.A., Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

Your predecessor, Dr. Savor, was good enough to accept nomination as a member of the Senate of this University and I am writing to enquire whether you will be willing to succeed him in this capacity.

As you know, there are many problems coming up just now of inter-university interest, and I feel that it would be desirable if, both as Director of Public Instruction in Madras and an ex-officio member of the Madras Syndicate, you could very kindly give us the benefit of your services on our Senate.

With kind regards.

sd. H.C.Papworth.

Mr. Subramanian,

I have been invited by the Vice-Chancellor of the Travancore University to attend the Convocation on the 10th February. I have agreed to comply with his request as my visit will not involve any expenditure on Travelling Allowance to the Government of Madras and I can also have an opportunity of meeting the Director of Public Instruction. I may, therefore, be permitted to leave Madras on the 9th and return on the 12th. I may add that I have been permitted by the Government to serve on the Senate of the Travancore University. Please see G.O.No.1611 Edn. dated 22.6.48.
