With reference to the amendments to the Rules for aid ordered in the G.O. Cited above, under Rule 7(2)(iii) a school is not eligible for the maintenance grant if more than one third of the teachers on the staff are untrained. Under Rule 20 of the Rules for aid a school having more than 2 teachers is expected to not to employ more than one untrained teacher for every 2 trained teachers. But under the proviso to this rule the District Educational Officer or Inspectress may in deserving cases exempt any school from the operation of Rule 20 for a specific period or periods. The schools though exempted under this rule will not be eligible for the "maintenance grant" under Rule 7(2) (iii). It has been brought to my notice that in the case of a large number of schools due to the expansion of compulsory elementary education in rural areas and due to the paucity of trained teachers, untrained teachers had to be largely employed and that the proportion is therefore not kept up. To deny such schools the "maintenance grants", which is very necessary for the management to run the schools, is neither reasonable nor fair. I, therefore, recommend that in the case of such schools that were exempted under the proviso to Rule 20, the rule 7(2)(iii) need not operate and they may be allowed the maintenance grant. As the payment of grant for 1947 has to be made urgently I am issuing instructions in anticipation of your kind approval that for 1947 such schools may be allowed maintenance grant under rule 7(2)(iii). The following amendment to the Rule is also suggested.

ADD after rule 7(2)(iii) of the Rules for aid
"Provided the school is not exempted under Rule 20 of the Rules for aid".
