Sir,

Sub: Adult Education - Training schools for Adult School teachers - Issue of certificate to trainees - approval requested.

It is proposed to issue a certificate to the trainees in Training schools for Adult School teachers at the end of the course of six weeks. The form of the certificate is appended.

The ability of the trainees and their progress will be watched by the Headmaster who will adopt a ~~simple~~ simple system of individual marking from the beginning of the course on the following items of practical work:-

	Maximum	Minimum
1. Preparation of Reading matter.	100
2. Teaching Practice	100
3. Discussion	50
4. Skill in slide making and Mechanism.	50

Total. 300

Those who secure not less than 40% in each subject and 50% in the aggregate will be considered to have completed the course successfully. There will be no written test at the end of the course. Certificates will be issued by the Secretary to the Commissioner for Govt. Examinations on the basis of the Headmaster's observation as seen from the marks assigned by him.

Those that are considered not to have made satisfactory progress by the Headmaster will receive no certificate. They may, however, be permitted to repeat the course as non-stipendiaries to qualify for a certificate.

I recommend the proposal for early approval.
