ESSAY AND POSTER COMPETITION IN THE SCHOOLS OF MEMBER STATES-SPONSORED BY THE UNESCO.

Sir,

I am directed to state that in accordance with a resolution adopted by the Second Session of the General Conference of Unesco held at Mexico City in November - December 1947, the Director General, Unesco has planned for the conduct of two competitions for young children in the schools of Member - States in order to stimulate wide public interest in the work of Unesco. Attached herewith is a statement outlining the way in which it is suggested that these competitions should be held, although detailed organisation has been left to each country concerned.

These competitions are an important aspect of Unesco's work to encourage knowledge about the United Nations and its specialised Agencies, and it is hoped that you will be able to give them your fullest support and assistance. In this respect, I shall be most grateful if you inform this Ministry by the 15th May, 1948:-

- whether you have any comments to make on the scheme outlined in the enclosed document.
- whether the schools in your Province will be taking part in these competitions.
- Authority responsible for holding them.

Copies of the material produced by Unesco, to which reference is made in the enclosed document, will be sent to you when received. It will be appreciated if you kindly explore the possibility of republishing this material and of translating it, if necessary, into the language or languages used in your schools for the use of the students taking part in the competition.

It would be greatly appreciated if arrangements were made for the competitions to be announced in your schools during September or October, 1948, and for necessary study material to be available by that time.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

J.C.
for SECRETARY.

Plans for

TWO COMPETITIONS IN THE SCHOOLS OF MEMBER STATES.

"TOGETHER WE BUILD A NEW WORLD,
as Essay and Poster Competition on UNESCO'S WORK"

United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization
19, Avenue Kleber, Paris 16 e.

These competitions for young people in the schools of Member States are being run as a result of the decision taken by the Second Session of the General Conference of Unesco, which resolved to:

"sponsors in 1948 two competitions for young people in order to stimulate wide public interest in the work of Unesco".

Title for Both Competitions:

"TOGETHER WE BUILD A NEW WORLD,
an Essay and Poster Competition on
UNESCO'S WORK"

Conditions of Entry:

- A. (1) The first competition will be open to those between 15 and 18 years of age.
- (2) The second competition to those between 12 and 15 years of age.

Competitors must be between these age limits on May 1st, 1949. No exceptions can be made for borderline cases.

Children of members of the Unesco Secretariat are not eligible to participate in competitions. (Members States may also wish to exclude children whose parents are intimately connected with Unesco's work in, for example, the National Commissions or Co-operating Bodies).

- B. Entries may be submitted in each competition in either of two forms:

- (1) An essay of between 1,000 and 2,000 words.
- (2) A poster, as large as possible, but not exceeding 48 x 66 cms or 18" x 25", on which the word Unesco must appear. Black and white or colours may be used. The design should be on simple lines that will reproduce easily.

It will be permissible for the same person to submit an entry in each form.

.....3

- C. It is a condition of entry that the essays and posters submitted are the unaided work of the competitors.

Opening and Closing Dates:

Unesco is asking Member States to announce the competitions in their schools during September or October, 1948.

It is suggested that entries be submitted, not later than May 1st, 1949, to the Ministry of Education in each country or to any other address specified by the Member State concerned.

Information on Unesco:

Unesco is preparing two pamphlets, fully illustrated and written specially for those between 12 and 18 years of age, on the work of the organization, and a film strip on those aspects of Unesco's programme of particular interest to children and young people.

It is hoped that Member States will be able to translate, if necessary, these pamphlets into the languages used in their schools and to republish them for wide distribution; and that they will obtain copies of the film strip from Unesco.

Specimen copies will be sent to Member States not later than July 1st, and, at the same time lists of other Unesco documents available in limited supplies will also be issued.

It is hoped, however, that some countries will in addition be able to issue pamphlets, charts and other materials of their own.

Judging the Competitions:

Nationally

1. The first preliminary selection of winning essays and posters will have to be made nationally. Unesco would not presume to suggest how each country should judge the entries it receives, but it is hoped that more importance will be attached to the spirit and interest shown by the competitors than to technical perfection in spelling and composition.
2. Each Member State is asked to send to Unesco by air mail not later than July 1st, 1949, the five best entries in each.

.....4

Medium in each competition, i.e.

In the first competition (15 to 18 years): 5 essays and 5 posters.

In the second competition (12 to 15 years): 5 essays and 5 posters.

No entries will be considered which bear a postmark later than July 1st, 1949.

3. Original copies of the essays and posters must be submitted to Unesco. Essays not written in one of Unesco's working languages, French or English, must be accompanied by a translation into one or other of these languages.

Internationally

The Director-General will select a panel of internationally known men and women to serve as judges who will make the award for Unesco. Their decision will be final.

In all other matters pertaining to the competitions the Director-General will be the final arbiter.

Awards:

International Awards

Unesco is offering the following international awards:

First Competition (15 to 18 years)

1st prize for Essay $250 1st Prize for Poster $250
2nd Prize for Essay $200 2nd Prize for Poster $200

and 8 additional prizes of $50 each.

Second Competition (12 to 15 years)

1st Prize for Essay $150 1st Prize for Poster $150
2nd Prize for Essay $100 2nd Prize for Poster $100

and 8 additional prizes of $50 each.

In both the Poster competitions either the first or second prize will be awarded for a poster in black and white.

...5

The prizes will be awarded in the form of a grant to enable the winners either:

- To travel abroad,
- To attend a conference on world affairs,
- To acquire further education; if possible, in another country,
- To purchase books and other educational material,

in accordance with individual choice.

National Awards

It is hoped that additional prizes will be offered by the government, or by interested organizations or individuals in the Member States. Where this can be done, it may be worth while to suggest a third form that the competition might take. In some schools a welcome alternative to the production of essays or posters might be a group project consisting, for example, in writing a play on Unesco's work, in making a scrap book of articles, newspaper cuttings, photographs, etc., or in constructing a model illustrating one of Unesco's activities.

Because of the difficulty of making an international award for projects of this kind, Unesco is not suggesting this as a third form in its own scheme. There would, however, be obvious advantages in encouraging activity along these lines and for making national awards.

Entry Form:

Member States will probably wish to issue their own entry forms for these competitions, but in case it should be helpful, a specimen entry form is attached.

But, whatever form is used, the participants must express their agreement with the conditions listed on the back of the specimen entry form. In addition, the name and address and school of each participant must be placed in a sealed envelope and attached to each essay or poster sent to Unesco. These envelopes will not be opened until after the awards have been decided upon.

Announcing the Results:

Unesco will endeavour to announce the awards as soon as possible and in any case before the Fourth Session of the General Conference in 1949.

Publication Rights:

Unesco is under no obligation to return essay and posters submitted to it. The Organization does not ask for exclusive rights of publication, but accepts entries on the understanding that the competitors will have no objection to Unesco publishing, without payment to the owner, any essay or poster submitted to it, whether or not it wins a prize.

Exhibition, Publication & Display:

A selection of the essays and posters may be reproduced in connexion with Unesco publicity and it is hoped that an exhibition of them can be shown at the 4th Session of the General Conference.

Subject: Essay and Poster Competition in the Schools of Member States sponsored by the UNESCO.

Sir,

In continuation of this Ministry letter of even number dated 21/5/48 on the subject mentioned above and to say that the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation have decided to extend the date of entries from 1st July to 1st September, 1949 for submission of the two Competitions. The decision has been taken because, in certain Member States of Unesco, it has taken rather longer than was expected to make the necessary arrangements for the Competitions. Moreover the Unesco authorities have decided to arrange an exhibition of the winning entries at the next full session of the General Conference of Unesco, which will meet in the spring of 1950, rather than at the short session to be held in September of this year.

You are therefore requested to announce the extension of the date of the entries of the two Competition from May 1st to June 1st, 1949. I hope that this postponement will enable a larger number of entries to be submitted than would otherwise have been possible.

If, however, arrangements for the examination etc of the entries have been made and there is a good response from the students, there is, of course no need for your plans to be altered in any way.
