Sir,

In connection with the Certificate and Diploma course in Anthropology conducted by the University, the Syndicate considered the arrangement for the special lectures to be given in Anatomy and Pre-historic Archaeology and has resolved to invite the Professor of Anatomy, Madras Medical College and the Superintendent, Government Museum, Egmore, Madras to deliver a course of lectures. The details of lectures to be delivered by the Superintendent, Government Museum will be as follows:

1. Practical work with introductory talks covering Pre-historic Archaeology for Paper 3. - 9 lectures.
2. Primitive material culture in Paper I for 1st year students in Diploma Course - 3 lectures.

He will be paid an honorarium of Rs. 20/- per lecture.

It is only with the co-operation of the Museum authorities that this course can be made effective and useful and I have, by direction of the Syndicate, to request that the Superintendent be permitted to accept the appointment to deliver the lectures and to give all facilities to the students for the course, to visit the museum as often as is required. It may even be necessary to conduct some lectures at the Museum itself.

I request that early orders of Government be obtained and communicated.

Yours faithfully,

R. R. Srinivasan
Ag. REGISTRAR.
