Sir,

Sub: Revised scales of pay 1947 - Special pay of Rs.25/- or 10/- as the case may be for the Headmasters and Headmistresses - Eligibility of Mrs. N.Stephens - Headmistress, Govt. Secondary and Training School for women Coimbatore - Orders - requested.

In G.O.No.Ms.616-Edu and P.H. dated 4-5-42 Government created the post of a Headmistress in the Govt. Secondary and Trg. School, Coimbatore considering the large strength of the institution and the need for assistance to the Superintendent in the organisation and supervision of the school. Mrs. N.Stephens is at present working in this post. Since there is also the post of a Superintendent in the Madras Educational Services besides this Headmistress I doubt whether she is eligible for the Special Pay of Rs.25/- or Rs.10/- as the case may be admissible for Headmasters and headmistresses under G.O.No.78 Finance dated 6-2-1947. I request the favour of Government orders in the matter.

With reference to the enquiry of the D.P.I. overleaf, whether the Headmaster's allowance is admissible to the Headmistress in charge of the Govt. Secondary Grade Section of the Govt. Secondary and Training School at Coimbatore, it is submitted that there is already a Superintendent of gazetted rank in charge of the institution. The Headmistress has been sanctioned just in order to assist the Superintendent. The administrative and other responsibilities of the institution will therefore be looked after by the Superintendent and not by the Headmistress. In

Govt Secondary and Trg School for Women, Coimbatore on pp 9-10 of contains the items of work assigned to the Headmistress of that School. Items 2, 6, 8 and 9 on pp 9-10 of clearly indicate that administrative responsibility besides teaching work is attached to the post of the Headmistress. This Dep't may therefore recommend that the Headmistress of the School may be allowed the Headmistress's allowance.

1. The first part of the report is devoted to a general survey of the situation of the country.

This image shows a dark, textured vertical strip, likely a book cover or endpaper. The material has a mottled, grainy appearance with various shades of grey and black. There are numerous small, dark specks and fibers visible throughout the texture. A faint, circular mark, possibly a stamp or a smudge, is located in the upper right quadrant. The left edge of the strip is irregular and shows signs of wear, with some lighter material visible underneath. The overall appearance is aged and worn.
