No. 738D/48/CPL Dated 3rd August 1948.

Sir,

Sub: Request for sanction to close the Government Museum and the Commemara Public Library on Sunday the 15th on account of the Independence Day.

As the Independence Day falls on a Sunday, which is a usual working day for the Museum and the Library, we have the honour to request that the Government will be pleased to accord sanction to close the Museum and the Library on that day to enable the members of the staff of the institutions to participate in the celebrations.

As, according to rules, notice of such closing has to be given to the public a week in advance we request the Government will be pleased to arrange to communicate to us the sanction early enough to do the needful.

We remain, Sir,
Yours faithfully,

A. Aiyappan
SUPERINTENDENT,
Government Museum.
