R.O. No. 64 ~~5.1~~/48, Dated the 30th of July, 1948.

Sir,

Subject:- Madras Educational Service - Vacancy in the post of Lecturer in Commerce, Government College, Mangalore - Filling of.

Reference:- G.O. No. 1597 Education, dated 21st June 1948.

IN their order referred to above the Government have sanctioned the employment of a Lecturer in Commerce in the Madras Educational Service for the Government College, Mangalore, with effect from the current academic year. In regard to filling of the post
I may state that there is no qualified and suitable candidate available in the Department for appointment to the post. I, therefore, recommend that the Madras Public Service Commission may be requested to advertise and select a suitable candidate for the post of Lecturer in Commerce, although the vacancy is not a substantive one, at present.

2. The Government College, Mangalore, re-opened after the vacation on 14th June 1948 and there is need for filling the post of Lecturer in Commerce immediately at least under emergency provisions till a suitable candidate is recruited and appointed to the post.
In this connection I submit herewith an application dated 19-6-1948 from Sri D. Rama Rao, B.A. B.Com.(Hons.), Madras, together with the University Degrees and original testimonials received from him.
Although Sri D. Rama Rao is a III Class B.Com.(Hons.) degree-holder
I consider that he would be suitable for temporary appointment as Lecturer. I, therefore, recommend that the Government may be pleased to appoint him as Lecturer in Commerce, Government College, Mangalore, under Rule 9(a)(i) of the General Rules for the Madras Provincial and Subordinate Services.

3. The Certificates of Sri D. Rama Rao submitted herewith may be returned when no longer required.

Yours faithfully,

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

Sir,

Subject:- Madras Educational Service - Lecturer in Commerce, Government College, Mangalore - Temporary appointment of Sri D. Rama Rao.

Reference:- G.O. Ms. No. 2069 Edn., dated 20-8-1948.

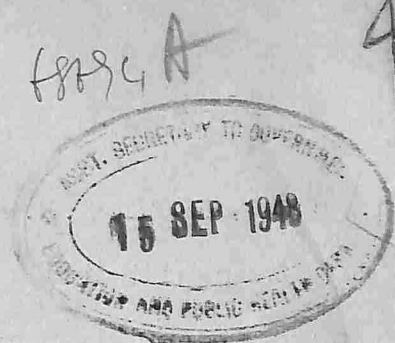

With reference to the G.O. cited above I have the honour to report that a List of candidates who have passed M.Com.(Final) and B.Com.(Hons.) Degree Examinations of the Andhra University, recently, has been obtained and it is seen that some of the candidates possess First Class B.Com.(Hons.) degrees. I am ascertaining from some of these candidates whether they are willing to accept appointment as Lecturer in Commerce under emergency provisions. Pending receipt of their replies I request that the orders appointing Sri D. Rama Rao a third class B.Com.(Hons.) candidate, may be kept in abeyance. I shall submit my revised recommendations shortly.

R.CL. No. 64/48, Dated the 14th September, 1948.

Sir,

Subject:- Madras Educational Service - Vacancy in the post of Lecturer in Commerce, Government College, Mangalore - Filling of:.

Reference:- G.O. Ms. No. 2069 Edn., dated 20th August 1948.

IN continuation of my letter R.CL. No. 64/48, dated 1st September 1948 I have the honour to state that the cases of ^{the following} four candidates who have better qualifications than Sri D. Rama Rao, have since been considered.

1. Sri D. Ramacharlu, B.Com.(Hons.)(II Class)(Andhra), Officiating Assistant Lecturer in Commerce, Government College, Mangalore.
(Probationer in the category of Assistant Lecturers - Joined duty on 16-8-1948).
2. Sri B. Raghavendra Rau, M.A.(Commerce)(Second Class)(Calcutta)
Chief Lecturer & Head of the Department of Commerce, S.R.R. & CVR College, Vijayawada.
(Serving in the College from July 1937).
3. Sri E.V. Narasimhamurty, B.Com.(Hons.)(I Class)(Andhra)(1948)

4. Sri K.V.V. Subbaraju, B.Com.(Hons.)(I Class)(Andhra)(1948), Pedapulleru, Bhimavaram Taluk,
West Godavari District.

As Messrs. B. Raghavendra Rau and E.V. Narasimhamurty are employed as Lecturers in Commerce in private Colleges, ~~it is not fair~~ ~~to appoint any of them to the present temporary vacancy in the Govern-~~ ment College, Mangalore. As between Messrs. D. Ramacharlu and K.V.V.
Subbaraju I recommend that Sri K.V.V. Subbaraju, who is a First Class B.Com.(Hons.) candidate, may be appointed to officiate as Lecturer in Commerce, Government College, Mangalore, under Rule 9(a)(i) of the General Rules for the Madras Provincial and Subordinate Services.

M.E.S. - Sri D.Rama Rao - Apptd. temporarily as Lecturer in Commerce, Govt. College, Mangalore.

Read:- From the DPI, No. 64/48, d/- 30 - 7-48.

G.O. (MS.) No. 2069 Edn., dated 20.8.48

Under rule 9(a)(i) of the Genl. Rules for the Provl. & Sub. Services, Sri D.Rama Rao is apptd. to officiate temporarily as Lecturer in Commerce, Govt. College, Mangalore, in the M.E.S., w.e.f. the date of taking charge.

2. The reason for the tempy. appt. is that the vacancy has to be filled immediately, there is no candidate in the appd. list for regular appt. and there would be delay if an appt. in accordance with the rules has to be made.

3. The reply of the S.S.I. to Govt. Memo. No. 367/7-A3 d/- 23.7.48 is awaited. The qn. of advertising the post of lecturer in Commerce for direct recruitment will be taken up for consideration later.

NOTE:- There is already one post of Commerce Lecturer in the MES, in the Govt. Arts College, Coimbatore. It is being held by a deptl. man, Sri T.Appalanarasiah, under the emergency provns. and the question of regularising his tempy. appt. will be taken up in due course. The vacancy in the Coimbatore College was advtd. some months ago for being filled, on a long-standing basis, by the direct recruitment of a war service candidate. No qualified person however applied. Therefore, the post has to be advtd. for the direct recruitment of a non-war person or can be filled by Sri Appalanarasiah himself. The question whether the Andhra Unty. Commerce degrees shd. be specifically ~~in~~ prescribed in the rules as alternative qualfn. so that such degree holders may also apply for the post, has been refd. to the DPI. Any way, as there is no qualified ~~in~~ man in the dept. except Sri Appalanarasiah, one of the ^{2 tempy.} posts (either the one at Mangalore or that at Coimbatore) has to be advtd. for ordy. direct recruitment after A is decided. Pending that, the Dir.'s recommendation for an emergency appt. ~~has~~ to the Mangalore post may be accepted. May be circd. to H.M.

of the post in the Combalori College is also filled by direct recruitment. Why then there is so much delay in recruitment. This sort of filling up people on a temporary footing is not conducive to efficient working. This may be allowed in the present circumstances.

The D.P.I.'s further letter at- cf. 3 may be seen. For the reason stated there, he wants Sri D. Rama Rao's appt. ordered at D.I. level to be held in abeyance. A draft memo. is sent.

RM 14/9/48 S by W/for H. (Cm.)

pg 9.8/14/9/48

The D.P.I.'s further report has since been recd. and the file has not therefore been circd.

The Dir. has recommended the cancellation of the appt. of Sri Rama Rao who is only a III Class man.

Giving the names of 4 other persons who are I or II Class degree-holders, he has stated that 2 of them are employed in private colleges and that therefore neither of them need be apptd. Of the remaining 2 candidates - Sri D. Ramacharlu and Sri K.V.V. Subbaraju - he recommends that the latter may be apptd. ^{under the emergency provisions.} The reason given by him for preferring Sri Subbaraju is that he possesses a I Class degree whereas Sri Ramacharlu holds a II Class. This does not seem to be sufficient reason. For, the qualfn. laid down for appt. is I or II Class degree. That point apart, Sri Ramacharlu is already offg. as Asst. Lecturer in Commerce in the M.E.S.S. It is indicated that he is a regular probationer in that post. That is, he had evidently been selected by the M.P.S.C. He has been working in the Mangalore College itself for the past one month and his taking charge of the Lecturership in that college would not lead to any dislocation of work in the dept. as a whole. Considering these, it seems only fair to 'promote' him ^(Sri Ramacharlu) temporarily, instead of appointing an outsider over him, and to appoint the outsider ~~XXXX~~ as Asst. Lecturer.

If the view above is accepted, the Dir. may be asked to ascertain Sri Subbaraju's willingness to accept the Asst. Lecturership and report. He may also be asked to give information ~~xxxxxxx~~ about the previous expce., if any, of the two candidates. Sri Rama Rao's appt. may be cancelled later on. Draft memo. below will be amended and sent.

② Sri Subbaraju is not likely to have it. He joined only this year - 2 at 1.4.48
