Dear Sir,

Mr. E. Rajaratnam has asked me to deal with the enclosed request for an extension of his Scholarship. I have accordingly told him that I would write a covering letter and enclose his request.

Mr. Rajaratnam has been with us since the beginning of 1946, but he did not commence his course proper until October 1946.
His results in the recent examinations have been extremely satisfactory; his marks being as follows:-

June 1947, Examinations Results.
Second Examination for B.Sc., in Applied Science, E. Rajaratnam

Naval Architecture (1)	82%
" " (2)	80%
Mathematics	70%
Physics	65%
Engineering	73%

You will see that these are very high marks for a student who is new to Naval Architecture, and I have no doubt that Mr.
Rajaratnam will obtain a very good Degree next year. His attendance at lectures and in the laboratory and drawing office has been very satisfactory, and he appears to be a good worker. I have no hesitation, therefore, in recommending very strongly that he be granted an extension of his present scholarship to enable him to complete the course for the B.Sc.
Degree in Naval Architecture in June 1948. He is at present obtaining practical experience in the Drawing Office of the period of training applied for by the candidate Mr. Edward Rajaratnam.

Sub: Overseas scholarships - 1945-46 - candidate Mr. Edward Rajaratnam - extension of study period.

Ref: Your Proc. R.O.C. No. 271 E/46, dated 27-9-47.

In view of the fact that Mr. Rajaratnam commenced his course in January 1946, some months after the session had started, and he must be permitted to take his B.Sc. degree in Naval Architecture, it would be necessary to extend his stay at the College to June 1948.
2. The proposed practical training of three months is most inadequate and it is very necessary to extend it upto at least one year.
3. All the other students that have been deputed for advanced studies shall have done post graduate study and research as this is considered very necessary for a prospective member of staff of an Engineering College.
Mr. Rajaratnam could not have taken a post-graduate course in Naval Architecture in view of the fact that he has not gone through an undergraduate course in Naval Architecture in India. As we must have the same standard for Naval Architecture as for other branches of Engineering, Mr. Rajaratnam also should do post-graduate study and research should commence period of one year. The post-graduate study and research should commence immediately after completion of his B.Sc. course and the practical training of one year should follow one year's post-graduate study and research.
This means extension of Mr. Rajaratnam's scholarship to June 1950.
4. Mr. Rajaratnam is intended for the staff of the Department of Marine Engineering and Naval Architecture proposed to be started at the College of Engineering, Vizagapatnam. As it will be some years before the course of Engineering and Naval Architecture is started at Vizagapatnam, Mr.
Rajaratnam's extension of stay, will not cause any inconvenience or dislocation. It is most likely that the Marine Engineering Naval Architecture Department shall not have been started at Vizagapatnam time Mr. Rajaratnam returns to India, after the extension.

Copy of letter from Prof. L.C. Burrill, Prof. of Naval Architecture, at Durham University, dated the 30th October, 1947.

In reply to the query in your letter of the 2nd October, regarding Mr. Rajaratnam's activities between January, 1946, and October, 1946, I have to advise you that he was registered as a student in the Department, and followed the first year lectures and Drawing Office work in the Department of Naval Architecture, but that owing to his late entry he was not required to sit the University examination at the end of that session, (i.e., June, 1946). During this period he was very diligent in his work in the Drawing Office and made very rapid progress, he was, therefore, admitted, ~~adirect~~ into the 2nd Year of the course in Oct. 1946, and sat his first University examinations in June of this year. His progress has been very satisfactory indeed, and he

Sir,

I am to refer to this Ministry endroisement
No. F.3-11/45-OD.IV, dated 8th January 1948 on the subject mentioned above and to forward herewith a copy of letter No.
EA.5221, dated 7th July 1948 with enclosures together with a copy of letter No. EA.5221 dated 31st July 1948 from the High Commissioner for India London, in respect of Mr. Edward Rajaratnam one of your 1945 sponsored scholars selected for advanced studies in Naval Architecture.

It would be recalled that Mr. Rajaratnam was granted an extension of nine months in the period of his scholarship from January 1948 to September 1948 in order to enable him to complete the B.Sc. degree course in Naval Architecture at the King's College, Durham University with three months practical training. The scholar has since obtained the B.Sc. Degree with distinction and has applied for a further extension of nine months in the period of his scholarship upto end of June 1949 in order to enable him to take the B.Sc.
Honours Degree in Naval Architecture. Prof. L.C. Burrill of the University of Durham has recommended the case strongly as would be seen from the copy of his letter No. LCB/DIG, dated 28th June, 1948, enclosed herewith. The High Commissioner also recommends the extension I am to request you kindly to consider the scholar's request for further extension in his scholarship upto 30th June 1949 for the purpose stated above from the point of view of the employment which he is expected to take up on return from abroad, and communicate the Provincial Government's view to this Ministry urgently.

In reply to your cable F./3/11/S/30/45/OD IV regarding Mr. Edward Rajaratnam, Madras Government scholar, I am sorry that the recommendation of this office was not given in our letter of 7th July.
The application for his scholarship has the approval of this office and recommendation.

We should be grateful if you would kindly take up the case with the sponsoring Government and let us know their decision as soon as possible.

Dear Sir,

Edward Rajaratnam.

Following the recent degree examinations in which the above student obtained extremely high marks and was awarded the B.Sc. degree with distinction. I suggested to him that we would like him to return to the college next year with a view to taking the Honours course in Naval Architecture. I may explain that, in accordance with our procedure here, entry to the Honours School in Applied Science subjects is not allowed until the student has completed the normal degree course and has obtained distinction marks in the professional subject. The Honours Degree course will include the design of a ship to meet a given specification and more advanced work on ship design, strength of ships, propeller theory and propeller design ~~that~~ hydrodynamics, and theory of structures; and I consider that it would take Rajaratnam a good deal further than the stage at which he has at present arrived.

He is a very excellent student, and I would very much like to have an opportunity of taking one of your Indian students through the whole of the course so that he becomes full competent in ship design and the higher branches of the subject. I believe therefore, that it would be eminently worth while for ~~xx~~ you to extend his scholarship to enable him to take this further year, as he would return to India fully competent to undertake the teaching of Naval Architecture subjects.

I may state that entry to the National Physical Laboratory as Scientific Officer grade is now dependent on the application holding a First or Second Class Honours degree, which will give you some idea of the present trend in this country.

I enclose herewith Mr. Rajaratnam's forms in triplicate in connection with an application for extension of period of scholarship, as I feel this may be the best way to deal with this matter. Should you decide that he must make a separate application, I will tell him to do so.

Should you wish to have any further particulars of the Honours Course or of Mr. Rajaratnam's performance, I shall ^{be} very pleased to discuss these with your representative if he here for this purpose.

Sir,

SUB: OVERSEAS SCHOLARSHIPS - 1945-46 - Candidate
Mr. Edward Rajaratnam - Extension of study period.

In resubmitting herewith the Government Endt.
63946/48-1 C2 Education dated 4th September 1948 I recommend the extension in the period of scholarship applied for by the candidate Mr. Edward Rajaratnam.

2. I also submit a copy of letter R.C.No.2- 45

Engineering College, Guindy on the matter.

Sub: Overseas scholarships 1945-46 - Mr. Edward Rajaratnam - Further Extension of study period.
REF: Your Proc.RC.No.271E/46 dated 10-9-1948.

With reference to your above Proceedings, Mr-Edward Rajaratnam has been specifically sent for Naval Architecture.
Dr. Rudra, the former Principal, in his letter RC.2-22/A/46 dated 19th October 1947 has stated that it is proposed to start this course in the Vizagapatam College. He also has stated in that letter that it would be many years before this course can be started and as soon as the scholar returns from abroad, he may be absorbed in one of the Engineering Colleges in the Mechanical Engineering Department. The position of staff in all the Engineering Colleges is very acute. Candidates with sufficient experience are not forthcoming to fill up vacant posts, and those employed in the lower categories are men with little or no experience. It is therefore very necessary to get the Overseas scholars back as soon as possible so that they can be absorbed in the staff of the different Engineering Colleges. The Overseas Scholars, although they have obtained academic awards, are without real experience of engineering works and teaching and it is therefore essential that the sooner they start acquiring this experience the better they will be in discharging their duties.

2. The B.Sc., Degree that Mr.Rajaratnam has obtained x covers various subjects of Naval Architecture. The B.Sc.(Hons) about which details have been given in the copy of the letter
No.LCB/DIG 28th June 1948 from the Professor of Naval Architecture, Kings College, Newcastle-upon-Tyne includes advanced work in Naval Architecture and in my opinion, these subiec-are very necessary for any one connected with a pt ante

course of Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering. Besides, the recall of Mr. Rajaratnam at the middle of a term will not materially assist in the instructional work of a college. If his request to extend his scholarship to June 1949 is granted, he will be available for employment from the beginning of the next academic year. His request for the extension of his scholarship may therefore be recommended.

3. The enclosures sent with your above Proceedings are resubmitted herewith.

Overseas Scholarships - 1945 - 46 - Mr. Edward Rajaratnam - Extension of course of study.

C.No. 65981 C2

From the Govt. of India Memo No. F. 3-11/45-OD IV dated 11-8-47.
From the D.P.I. No. 271 E/46 dated 10-10-1947.
From the Govt. of India No. F. 3-11/45-OD IV dated 15-10-1947.

& its enclosures

Please see the memo from the Government of India on pp 1-7 cf. Mr. Edward Rajaratnam is a scholar selected in 1945-46 for undergoing advanced studies in "Naval Architecture". He is intended for absorption in the teaching personnel of the Government Engineering Colleges.

2. Mr. Rajaratnam joined the King's College, Newcastle on ~~the~~ ^{type} in the beginning of 1946, though his course actually commenced only from October 46. For purposes of the scholarship, the actual date of joining an educational institution has to be taken into account. The normal period of training allowed for each scholar is two years. Mr. Rajaratnam will therefore be completing the 2 years of study by the beginning of Jan. 48. The H.C. for India and the Professor of Naval Architecture, King's College support the scholar's request that his period of training may be extended upto September 1948 so as to enable him to complete the B.Sc. degree course and three months' practical training there after in the U.K. This involves an extension of study for the scholar by about 8 months. The D.P.I. also supports the proposal. In the circumstances, the extension asked for by the scholar may be granted.

A copy of the letter of the Principal College of Engineering, Guindy forwarded by the D.P.I. will be found on pp 9 - 10 cf. The Principal strongly recommends the extension of Mr. Rajaratnam's studies upto June 1950. But there seems to be no need to go beyond the recommendation made by the High Commissioner.

The file may be sent to Finance for remarks,

Govt. of India and its enclosures on pp 15-19 cf. With reference to Mr Edward Rajaratnam's Extension of Scholarship, a reply has already been sent to the Crg I - vide the Lr on p 13 cf. In respect of p 15 cf, it may be noted that the Govt. have not accepted Principal Rindras's suggestion (that the scholar's studies might be extended up to June 1950. In view of this, the Crg I may be told that this Govt. have no suggestions to offer in regard to the scholar's studies after Sep 48 and that the scholar may return to India after completing the three months' practical training

Mr. Edward Rajaratnam is a scholar selected in 1945-6 for studies in the U.K. in "Naval Architecture" and is intended for absorption in the teaching personnel of the King's College. The Govt. have already granted him an extension in the period of scholarship for 9 months from Jan 48 to Sep 48 in order to complete B.Sc. Course and 3 months practical training. The scholar has now applied for a further extension of 9 months upto end of June 49 in order to enable him to take the B.Sc. Honours Degree in Naval Architecture. The Professor under whom he is working strongly recommends it, as he considers that he could then return to India fully competent to undertake the teaching of Naval Architecture subjects. The High Comm. also recommends. Dr. Rudra had already recommended that this scholar should be given extension till June 1950, i.e. for about 2 1/2 yrs, (1) to enable him to finish B.Sc. Course by June 48 (2) for postgraduate study and research in Naval Architecture for 1 year and (3) for 12 months practical training in Naval Architecture. The present Principal of the King's College considers that the subjects studied in the B.Sc. (Honours) Course are very necessary for any one connected with a Course of Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering. He and

D.P.I. recommends his extension applied for p 13 of by the scholar.

Extensions have been given mostly for periods less than a year. In a few cases 12 months have been granted. For one scholar, Sri N. V. Kudva, an extension of 16 months has been granted. In the present case it is for 18 months. The Govt of India seems to be agreeable and they may therefore meet half the cost.

In the circumstances extension till the end of June 49 may be granted. The remarks of Finance may be invited before circulation.

Kudva) is for 16 months & in the present case, if the extension is granted, it will be 18 months. This Govt. ^{was} inclined to the grant of further extension of the scholarship & Govt. of India ^{was} has been asked to bear half the cost of expenditure of the extended period of scholarship. The Govt. of India declines to bear any share in the cost of the extended period of scholarship. Finance suggest circulation of the case to HM (Fin) with a
