R.C. No. 617-B1/48, dated 4th July 1948.

Sir,

* ELEMENTARY EDUCATION--Compulsory areas--write off of unserviceable articles.

I have the honour to state that subordinate inspecting officers solicit instructions from me regarding the write off of unserviceable books and slates purchased out of Government grant and supplied to poor pupils studying in the Elementary schools in the compulsory area. At present, there is no provision for such a procedure in the Rules regarding to Elementary Schools.

I therefore request that District Educational Officers may be empowered to write off unserviceable articles viz. Books and slates, after satisfying that they have become unserviceable after fair usage, subject to the following conditions

1. No book can be written off as unserviceable, unless atleast one year has elapsed after the date of purchase.

2. In the case of slates the period shall be two years from the date of purchase.

Yours faithfully,

For Director of Public Instruction.

Not necessary Books & slates
after one or 2 years will become useless
& the original value also will not be large.

Consider, in consultation with the D.P.I., whether it is not desirable to fix a monetary limit for the value of books and slates to be written off by the D.E.Os. at a time.
