Development Department, Fort St. George, Madras.

Sir,

Sub: STATIONERY--Flat File cases--Requested.

Ref: G.O.Ms.No.179 Edn.P.H. Department dated 25-1-46.

In the G.O. cited, the scale of supply of flat file cases II sort, to this office was fixed at 1,640 (1,250 'ordinary' and 390 'urgent'). Since then, this office has been converted into 'A' class and the following new subjects are dealt with in the Labour section of this office:-

1. Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act.
2. The Madras Shops and Establishments Act.
3. Formation of Industrial Works Committees.
4. Formation of Unit Production Committees.

Further, the number of registered trade unions has increased resulting in the increased number of 'E' returns under the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926, for which more flat file cases are required. The work in the Harijan Uplift and budget sections has also increased considerably. I request that the Government may be pleased to direct the Superintendent of Stationery, Madras, to sanction 1,000 (one thousand) additional flat file cases - 700 'ordinary' and 300 'urgent'. The scale of supply sanctioned to this office may be increased to 2,640 (1,950 'ordinary' and 690 'urgent').

2. I request the favour of early orders of the Government.
