Office of the

To

The Secretary to Government,
Education and Public Health Department.

Sir,

Subject: MADRAS EDUCATIONAL SUBORDINATE SERVICE - Posts of Assistant Professors and Assistant Lecturers - Possession of B.T. Degree - Amendment to the Special Rules.

Reference: G.O.No.78 Finance dated 6-2-1947.

BR 114/29

With reference to rule 11 (b) of the Special Rules for the Madras Educational Subordinate Service a probationary Assistant Professor or a probationary Assistant Lecturer (in the Men's and Women's Branches) shall within the prescribed period of probation obtain the B.T. degree of the University of Madras or B.Ed., degree of the Andhra University. Under the proviso to same rule, the Director is empowered to grant exemption from obtaining the L.T. degree to any deserving case and such exemption has been granted by me in a few cases.

Now that Government in their order quoted above have made a difference between the salaries of Assistant Professors ^{Assistant Lecturers who possess the B.T. degree and those who do not} and who do not possess it by granting a special allowance of Rs.5/- for those who possess it. I have the honour to request that Government may be pleased to delete the provisions contained in rule 11 (b) (i) and (ii) of the Special Rules for the Madras Educational Subordinate Service. If ^{is} this done there would be no necessity for me to grant any exemptions.

In this connection I may also state that from the academic and professional point of view the possession of an L.T. degree is not at all necessary in the case of Assistant Professors and Assistant Lecturers and in no country is such a qualification required of collegiate staff. The University authorities also do not require this qualification except in the case of those working in the training Colleges.

By insisting on this qualification, a number of Assistant Lecturers are compelled, in these difficult days, to spend nearly one year on loss of pay for undergoing training, thereby incurring out of their own pocket an expenditure of about Rs.2,000/-. Not only is the

is the training not of any particular use to them but to that extent they prevent candidates who are to be employed, after training, in secondary schools from joining the training institutions. There is at present a large demand for trained teachers from secondary schools and it is essential that the limited resources now available in this province for training teachers should not be wasted on people who are not going to work in secondary schools at any time.

Finally, I may add that such Assistant Lecturers as desire to be considered for a transfer to the administrative line or for a transfer as Assistant Lecturers or as Lecturers in training Colleges will be required to possess an B.T. or B.Ed. degree.

I shall submit in due course similar proposals in regard to the Provincial Educational Service also.

Madras Edl. Sub Series - Parts of Art Profess and Art Lecturers - Promotion of BT. degree

Please see the D.P.S's letter in the cf. For the reasons explained by the Director, his proposal that the rule laying down that Art Profs. and Art Lecturers should obtain the BT. degree during the period of their probation may be abrogated, seems acceptable. It may be mentioned here that it has been separately decided that Art Professors and Art Lecturers in Arts Colleges should not be entitled to promotion to posts of lecturers in Trig. Colleges.

The Director says, that he will submit similar proposals in regard to the M.E.S. He may be asked to submit these proposals along with draft amendments in respect of Art Profs. and Art Lecturers posts. The rules can be framed in consultation with legal. The M.P.S. will also have to be consulted. A draft memo is subd.

Draft Notification II. Amendment (1) provides that no Assistant Professor or Assistant Lecturer in the Men's and Women's Branches shall be eligible for transfer as Assistant Lecturers in the Government Training Colleges unless he or she possesses the B.T. or the B.Ed. degree. It would appear that there are no Assistant Professors in the Women's Branch - see rule 1, Class IX of the Special Rules for the Madras Educational Subordinate Service. If this is correct the words "No Assistant Professor or Assistant Lecturer in the Men's and Women's Branches" in the draft should be altered into "No Assistant professor or Assistant Lecturer in the Men's Branch and no Assistant Lecturer in the Women's Branch". Again, the draft does not provide for transfer as Assistant Professor in the Government Training Colleges. It is presumed that there are no such Assistant Professors. Subject to the above remarks, the alterations indicated in red ink in draft notification II may be made.
