DRAFT AMENDMENTS.

1. In the said rules, in the rule under the heading "Section 3 (1)—Attendance at School", the following paragraph shall be added at the end, namely:—
 "In the case of adult literacy schools, the school day shall be not less than an hour and a half during any part of the morning or evening and the minimum attendance for the year shall ordinarily be calculated in respect of 200 such school days".
2. In the statement under the Note in Appendix I to the said rules the following item shall be added at the end, namely:—
 b. "Number of adult literacy schools, having—
 (i) one year course.
 (ii) two years course.
 (iii) three years course."

II

The following amendment will be made to the rules relating to the grant of recognition and aid to elementary schools published with the Education Department Notification No. 243, dated 21st August 1939, at pages 556-568 of Part I-B of the Port St. George Gazette, dated 29th August 1939, as subsequently amended.

In the said rules the following shall be added as Chapter VI, namely:—

"CHAPTER VI.

Adult literacy schools.

The rules relating to the recognition and aid to elementary schools laid down in Chapters I and II shall be applicable to adult literacy schools also excepting those or any of the said rules that are repugnant or contradictory to the rules mentioned hereunder:—

2. Admission.—Adults between the ages of 13 and 40 may be admitted into the schools.
3. Course.—The course shall consist of three years' duration. The first year's instruction will aim at making the adults literate and enable them to read specially prepared books. The next two years will be towards the achievement of a standard that will enable the adult to read and understand a newspaper. The prescribed syllabus shall be followed. The method that will be adopted will be the ones approved by the Department and all aids to quick literacy like slides, pictures, charts and reading sheets, shall be used.
4. Staff.—Teachers employed in adult literacy schools may be part-time teachers. Those employed under local bodies may, with the permission of the executive authority of the local body concerned, work in an adult literacy school and they shall be eligible to receive the grants as per the scales prescribed below. Teachers in other day schools and those who are employed in other profession or trade will also be eligible to be teachers in the adult literacy schools provided they possess the qualifications mentioned in rule 5.
5. Qualifications.—Teachers in adult literacy schools shall ordinarily hold:
 (a) a certificate of having passed the III Form or the Eighth Standard Public Examination and
 (b) Adult Education Teachers' Certificate granted after a successful period of training at one of the recognized centres.
 NOTE.—Teachers without Adult Education Teachers' Certificate may however be employed for a period of two years from 1st June 1948 in adult literacy schools for want of adult education trained teachers, and recognition to such schools shall be accorded only temporarily.
6. Building and equipment.—Any available building in the place shall be utilized for the schools. No separate building or furniture of any kind need be provided.
 In course of time, a small library may be built up in every school.
7. Syllabus.—A syllabus specially prepared and approved for the purpose should be followed in these schools. A special set of books prepared for use by adults should be followed in the later stages.
8. Basis of grant.—In an adult literacy school during the first year, it need have only one teacher for 20 pupils. In subsequent years, when pupils are taken to a second year, a teacher shall be allowed for each class, but no school shall have more than three teachers as the scheme is intended to cover only a period of three years and at no time should any school have more than three classes or sections.

9. Scale of grants.—Teaching grants will be calculated at the following rates:—

Rate per month per teacher.

1. Teachers with qualifications prescribed in rule 5 (a) and (b) and
 A uniform rate of Rs. 8 per month and an additional flat rate of Rs. 4 per month to cover lighting and other incidental charges.
2. Others i.e., those that come under the note to rule 5.
 A uniform rate of Rs. 5 per month and an additional flat rate of Rs. 3 per month to cover lighting and other incidental charges.

10. Assessment of grants.—Grants shall be calculated for the actual number of teachers employed in the adult literacy schools at the rates prescribed in rule 9 above provided there is a minimum average attendance of 15 pupils for each class of the school.

For the first two years, however, from the date of coming into force of these rules, adult literacy schools with a minimum of 10 pupils in average attendance may receive grants as prescribed above.

11. In view of the above rulings, adult night schools that were already recognized will cease to be recognized ones unless they conform to the rules mentioned above whether they be in receipt of grants or not.

12. In the case of adult literacy schools run by local bodies, the teachers may be remunerated at the rates prescribed in rule 9 and the expenditure may be met from the Elementary Education Fund under salary and allowance.

I have the honour to propose the following amendments to the Rules framed under the Madras Elementary Education Act to provide for the Adult Literacy Schools, for favour of consideration by Government and early orders:

In the Part I of the Rules, as last para under the rules under section 3 (1), it may be added that

"In the case of Adult Literacy Schools, the schoolday shall be not less than an hour and a half during any part of the morning or evening, and the minimum attendance for the year shall ordinarily be calculated in respect of 200 such schooldays."

In the statement accompanying the note under Appendix I, an additional Column may be opened Viz., "Number of - Adult literacy schools" with sub-columns "having 1st year course", "2 years" and "3 years".

In part II, the following may be added as Chapter VI with the heading "Adult Literacy Schools".

CHAPTER VI.

The following rules shall be applied to Adult Literacy
Schools:-

(1) The rules relating to the recognition and aid to elementary schools laid down in Chapters I and II shall be applicable to adult literacy schools also excepting those or any of the said rules that are repugnant or contradictory to the rules mentioned hereunder:-

2. ADMISSION: Adults between the ages of 13 and 40 may be admitted into the schools.

3. COURSE: The course shall consist of three years duration. During the first year, imparting the instruction will aim at making the adults literates by enabling them to

Sir,

Sub: Adult Education - Adult Literacy schools - Opening of - Syllabus for the.

Ref: Government Memo No. 39334/48-2-B2 Ednl, dated 26-7-48.

I submit herewith a copy of the draft syllabus for the course of instruction in adult night schools for the approval of the Government. It has had the approval of the Sub-Committee on Adult Education.

for Director of Public Instruction.

Introductory Remarks: The Government in their Order Ms.

No.846, Education dated 9th April 1948 have stated that the Adults admitted into the schools should be able to read specially prepared books within a year. Instruction should be continued for a further period of two years to enable them to read a newspaper. The syllabus hereunder given is framed in consonance with this objective. The ability to read a newspaper is interpreted for purposes of the following syllabus as ability to read with understanding of the topics dealt with. The news in a newspaper covers all branches of knowledge. As such a fair acquaintance with subjects in general has to be imparted in the two subsequent years after the first. To this end the teachers whose qualification is fixed at the Third Form or the VIII Standard will have themselves to be coached at the end of the first and second years to take up work of the second and third years. If men of the school final standard could be drafted for the second and third year classes with a short course of training it may be better. Paucity of men, however, stands in the way. Hence a Hand Book will be prepared for the guidance of the teacher.

THE SYLLABUS.

FIRST YEAR:

First three months: Teaching of letters through life centred words specially based on the craft, trade, profession and environment of the individual or the group of individuals by the quick literacy method. The T.T. should include items of interest and entertainment and the serious teaching of the days' lesson should not exceed 30 minutes.

The next eight months: Specially prepared booklets on topics of interest to be studied and writing practised.

A suggestive time-table is given below:

Day.	7 to 7-5 P.M.	7-5 to 7-30 p.m.	7-30 to 8 P.M.	8 to 8-30 P.M.
Monday.	Singing in Chorus	Individual reading and writing.	Each-one-teach me.	General knowledge
Tuesday	do.	do.	do.	Current affairs discussion.
Wednesday	do.	do.	do.	General knowledge.
Thursday	do.	do.	do.	Reading from great authors

ADULT EDUCATION SCHEME

Sir,—I have seen in papers the proposal of the Government to amend the rules relating to the opening of adult education centres in the Presidency. I, as an adult educationist in my acquaintance with the common man of this country for the past eight years have found it impossible to carry on my work successfully. By adhering strictly to rules and regulations, which the Government have proposed to introduce I am of opinion will bear no fruits. In educating the adults much importance should be given to the approach of the scheme. It is easy to formulate rules but difficulty will be experienced only when they are actually put into practice. Therefore, I should like to suggest to the Government that they will be doing great justice to the scheme, that they want to introduce, if they gather information from those who are already in the field. A Provincial Conference of Adult Education workers with meritorious service in the field should be convened and a final scheme should be drafted, which alone will serve the purpose of educating the common man of the country.

I remember to have passed orders upon rules and regulations to govern aid to adult literacy schools and other institutions started under the adult education scheme of Govt. But I heard from certain D.E.Os. that these orders have not been received by them. I would like to know whether orders have been issued on these matters. If orders have not yet been issued, they may be expedited.

The draft order may issue with the following changes:

In para. 3 of Chapter VI, under the heading Course, the wording is not clear. For the words "During the first year within a year", the following may be substituted: "The first year's instruction will aim at making the adults literate and enable them to read specially prepared books."

It has been said that we will publish the syllabus for the Night school. I do not think we have published it yet. An order like this will be useless without the publication of this syllabus since we are enforcing the syllabus upon them and so, the D.P.I. may be asked to put up that syllabus immediately.
