T.M. REPLY BY POST DATED 13TH NOVEMBER 1947.

From The Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

To The Assistant Secretary to Government, Edn., & Public Health Department.

Ref: Your T.M. dated 10th Novr. 1947..

The posts of Principals of the Presidency and Teachers' Colleges are not independent posts. The Principals of these Colleges are also Professor or Lecturer in one of the subjects. Since the retirement of Mr. H.C. Papworth with effect from 16th December 1943, the post of Principal and Senior Professor ~~for~~ (of English) is substantively vacant. After the retirement of Sri Rao Bahadur N.R. Krishnamma with effect from 1st June 1942, nobody has so far been confirmed as Principal of the Teachers' College, Saidapet. The resultant vacancy that occurred in the post of Lecturer in English, Teachers' College, Saidapet, was substantively filled by Mr. G.H. Jansen. Since Mr. Jansen has resigned from service with effect from 28th May 1947, the post of Lecturer in English in the College is again vacant. Hence the post of Principal and Senior Lecturer (in English), Teachers' College, Saidapet, may be considered as substantively vacant with effect from 28th May 1947.

The Govt. decline to accept the recommendation of the D.O. made in the refce. cited.

2. The Div. may, however, be informed that since the post of Principal & Senior Professor, Presy. College, Madras, is substantively vacant and since no officer counts or has counted for his pension service in the post from 20.6.47, Dr. S. S. Manavalaramaniam can have the benefit of counting towards average emoluments for reckoning pension the offg. pay drawn by him as

(Art. 486(R), C.S.R.),

Principal & Sr. Prof. & and for, therefore, he will not be in a worse position for want of confirmation in that ~~post~~ capacity.

With reference to G.O.Ms.No.1181, Education, dated 9th June 1947 Dr.S.G.Manavalaramanujam, Professor of Zoology, Presidency College, Madras, has been officiating as Principal and Senior Professor of the same College with effect from 20th June 1947. According to Rule 7 (a) of the Special Rules for the M.E.S. he has to be on probation for a total period of two years on duty within a continuous period of three years before he could be considered for confirmation as Principal and Senior Professor of the College. In this connection I may submit that Dr.Manavalaramanujam is due to retire from service on 26--8--1948 and he can never put in the required period of service to complete his probation as Principal. However, I may state that he deserves to be confirmed as Principal and Senior Professor in the circumstances explained below:

2 Dr.Manavalaramanujam has been in additional charge of the post of Principal on three occasions in the past and during all these periods he has shown that he fully deserves the Principalship.

3 Everytime the question of filling a vacancy of Principal and Senior Lecturer of a mofussil college arose during the past one or two years he could not be considered for promotion as his presence at the Presidency College was considered necessary, so much so that two of his own juniors had to be appointed as Principals of First Grade Colleges.

4 I, therefore, recommend that the provisions of Special Rule 7 (a) in regard to probation may be relaxed in favour of Dr.S.G.Manavalaramanujam.

(X) Rn. 50 - spl. pay - in addn. to Prof. &

Lecturers' pay
(Rn. 230-700)

that he may be confirmed as Principal and Senior Professor, Presidency College, Madras, with effect from 20--6--1947, so that he may at least have the satisfaction of retiring as permanent Principal and also be enabled to count his higher emoluments as Principal for purposes of calculating for pension.

Rules are relaxed only in exceptional cases where public interests are really involved or where their application cause undoubted hardship to individuals. That Dr. S.G. Manavalaramanujam, offg. Principal, Presy. College, will be able to get higher pension if the 2 years' probation rule is relaxed in his favour, does not satisfy that test. The other object proposed to be achieved by the D.P.I., viz., A above, does not seem to be a material one.

The fact mentioned in para 2 of the u.o. note, that the officer had ~~discharge~~ held addl. charge of the Presy. College Principal's post on three occasions (previous to his actual appointment), cannot be taken to have conferred him any preferential claim ^{even on probation} for his appt. - much less for appointment as a full member in that ^{post} category - cf. Explan. ~~to~~ under Definition (1) in rule 2 of the General Rules, Part I.

The two juniors to Dr. Manavalaramanujam, refd. to in para 3 on p.1 ante, are probably Sri A. Ramanatha Pillai and Sri K.S.U. Nair, who were apptd. as Principal of the Coimbatore College and Principal of the Victoria College, resply. The former's appt. was made as a special case. Before the latter was appointed, Dr. Manavalaramanujam was consulted as to his willingness to accept the post, but he refused the Principalship of ~~Coimbatore College~~ ^{Victoria College} and preferred to continue in the Presy. College itself, as Professor.

In view of these, there seems to be no justification to accept the Dir.'s proposal. Attention is here invited to the U.O. note of the Pub. Dept. at (U) ~~where~~ re: relaxations of rules, in which H.M.M.'s minutes on the question have also been incorporated.

The post of Principal, Presidency College is permanently vacant and no one is probably having any lien on it. If so, will not Dr. M. be eligible to count his service and emoluments as offg. Principal towards his pension even if he is not confirmed? I think there is some provision in the C.S.R.

20/11/47

Reminded. Ascertained from ~~the~~ ^{the} that the post is permanently vacant and ^{that} one has a lien on it. It is understood from Fin that Dr. Manavalaramanujam will be eligible to count his service as Principal towards pension even if he is not confirmed, under Article 486 (b) ~~of the C.S.R.~~ ^{even} his case ~~does not come under~~ ^{is covered by} Article 486 (b) ~~of the C.S.R.~~ ^{as he will be eligible in respect of his pension to an increase of the rate specified in Article 487-A of the C.S.R. - clause (a), as introduced by G.O. 537 Fin d 21.7.47. Fin with no doubt offer this remarks with reference to the point raised by A.S. above.}

This dept. may agree with ~~the~~ ^{the} that there is no case for relaxing the provisions of the probation rule in favour of Dr. Manavalaramanujam with a view to confirm him as Principal of Presidency College before he completes his probation satisfactorily. However,

I agree. The request may be negative.

the post of Principal in which Dr. T is now acting is permanently vacant and as no one else seems to be having a lien on it, it appears that he will be eligible under the C.S.R. to count his officiating service and entitlement towards his pension even tho' he may not be confirmed in that post before retirement. I in will no doubt comment on this point.

Fin (Par)

The note on pp. 4 above may be perused. Finance may agree with E.P.H. and Public that there is no justification to accept the proposal of the Director of Public Instruction. ~~What is above is correct.~~ The Officer can have the benefit of counting towards average entitlements for reckoning pension, the officiating pay drawn by him as Principal of the Presidency College if the conditions of Article 486(h) are satisfied. If no other Officer cannot serve in that post for purpose of pension and if the post is substantially vacant, the benefit of higher entitlement for pension as envisaged in the above Article would accrue to Dr. Manavalaramanujam.
If this accrues, the Officer will not in any way be in a worse position for want of confirmation in the post of principal. E.P.H. will no doubt concur the D.P.G. whether A above is correct.
If, on the other hand, the Officer cannot have the benefit of Art. 486(h) C.S.R., he can still get higher pension than the one admissible were his substantive pay as Inferior alone is taken into account under the provisions of Art. 487A C.S.R. but this will be less than what he would have got if the concession of Art. 486(h) could be given to him.

Both Public and Fin. agree with this dept. that there is no justification to accept the DPI's proposal to confirm Dr. S.G. Manavalaramanujam as Principal, Presy. College, after relaxing the probation rule in his favour. A in Fin.'s note (p. 4 ante) is correct - vide D.P.I.'s T.M. at C.F. 4 - and therefore B there (viz., that the officer would not be in a worse position for want of confirmation) may also be pointed out to the Dir. For orders as to circn. to H.M. (Edn.).
