Copy of letter dated 14-5-48 from Mrs. Moses, Inspectress of girls' schools, II Circle, Nellore to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

I have the honour to state that my health has been far from satisfactory since more than a month. My run down condition and the heat of summer make me feel very tired at the least exertion.

The medical certificate given by the Lady Doctor who is attending me is enclosed.

I request you to kindly issue a requisition to the District Medical Officer, Vizagapatnam so that he may examine me and issue the necessary medical certificate for four months leave on average pay from 15-5-1948.

I will be very grateful if urgent orders are sent.
