Education and Public Health Department

Sir,

Subject: Elementary Education - Provocational Instruction
- Legislative council Question No.111 - Elementary Schools - Training in manufacture of hand-made paper.

E F: Govt. Memo.No.12989-C.1/48-1 Edn dated 12-3-1948

With reference to the Government Memo. referred to above, I have the honour to suggest the following draft reply to the Legislative Council Question No.111.

24627

1. Query (a) There are no vocational subjects but provocational subjects are taught in Higher Elementary Schools in the province. A list of the subjects is enclosed (Vide Annexure I) below.

2. Query (b): Paper making is one of the approved provocational subjects and this presumably includes hand-made paper manufacture also.

3. Regarding queries (c)&(d) - In G.O.No.1516 Edn dated 25-9-45
Government have approved the proposal to organise a short-training course in paper making in selected centres in the Presidency. With reference to these orders a short-training course for teachers in elementary schools was conducted by the Director of Industries and Commerce in 5 centres, in February 1946.

4. In their Memo. No.4116-C.1/47-3 dated 18-7-47 Government have approved the proposal to conduct another short training course in paper-making for teachers employed in Elementary Schools under Local bodies. The Director of Industries and Commerce has agreed to conduct the course in 8 centres, 4 in Telugu and 4 in Tamil Districts (Vide annexure II) - and to admit 16 teachers in each of the selected centres. Arrangements are being made to conduct the course.

5. As regards query (c) the question of continuing the short-term course will have to be examined if and when the need arises.

RC.No. 1976/B.2/48 dated 14th July 1948.

Sir,

SUB:-Elementary Education - prevocational Instruction - Training in Manufacture of paper - continuance of the course:

REF:- Government Memorandum No.12989/48-3 C.I.Edn. dated the 14th June 1948.

With reference to the above Memorandum, I have to state that Paper-making is a heavy handicraft and should be introduced only in Senior Basic Schools (Standards VI to VIII). Therefore, training in this craft may be introduced in Basic Training Schools of the Secondary Grade. Separate training centres for paper making and other handicrafts are no longer necessary, and it is, therefore, not necessary to continue the course in paper-making sanctioned in G.O.No. 1516, Education, dated 25th September 1945 and

Please see the question below.
G.O. 1516 Edn. dated 15-9-45 and Memo. No. 406 C/P. 322 dated 18-7-47, the Govt. have sanctioned a short course of training in paper making for elementary teachers under local bodies. The attention of the D.P.S. may be invited to these orders and he may be asked to furnish all the information required in the question.
The draft below is for approval.

18-3-48

From the D.P.I., No. 938-82/48, dated 2.4.1948.

Please see the Memo on page 1 of the D.P.I. reply on page 3 of the answer to clause (e), the D.P.I. has stated that paper-making presumably includes hand-made paper manufacture also. out from the list at 'A' on page 11 of (A) and the list in Annexure II on page 4 of, it is seen that some hand-made paper mills have also been chosen as training centres. It may therefore be taken that training is given in hand-made paper manufacture also; this may be stated so definitely in the answer, and need not be put in base on the reply as a presumption, as stated by the D.P.I.

Subject to orders ^{on the above} and based on the D.P.I. other replies on pages 3-4 of, a draft answer is subd below for approval. It may be circulated to H.M. (Edu.) for approval before issue.

The answer may be approved.
With regard to (e), I am not quite sure if these pre-vocational courses should be continued in view of Basic Education. The D.P.I. may be addressed to whether it is necessary for us to continue these pre-vocational courses in view of the syllabus for Basic Education containing definite vocational courses.
