Sir,

In continuation of my letter to the Director of Public Instruction dated 24-5-48, I am now writing to inform that I have received an interim order from the War Office, dated 11-6-48 asking me to hold myself in readiness for embarkation at short notice and I am therefore hoping to sail any day now. However, as I feel that I shall not be arriving in Madras on 27-6-48, I request that I may be granted leave that I am eligible for till my arrival in Madras, eligibility for my leave being as stated in my leave salary certificate No. 48415 - 94 Education 1574 dated 16-1-48, from the Accountant-general. I shall rejoin duty immediately on arrival in Madras. I regret the delay caused in my arrival which has been unavoidable.
