Sir,
Sub: Stationery - flat file pads - supply to local boards - discontinuance of - sanction requested.

As it was not possible to manufacture and supply flat file cases to local boards in addition to requirements of the Superintendent of Stationery, Madras due to heavy pressure of work, I had in my letter No. Sale dated 23-1-48 asked the Inspector of Municipal Councils and Local Boards, Madras to instruct the Local boards to make their own arrangements to get their requirements manufactured locally as was done last year in response to my letter No. Sale dated 25-7-47, who in his letter No. K.Dis.5165/48/F4 dated 30-1-48 has stated that Government may be addressed in the matter. I request Government to accord sanction for his discontinuing the supply of flat file cases to local boards and municipalities for two years (i.e. 1948 and 1949).

I enclose herein copies of the above letters for your reference.

Superintendent.

Copy communicated to Inspector of Municipal Councils and Local Boards, Madras for information with reference to his letter No. L.Dis. 5165/48/F8 dated 30-1-48.
