(a) what are the qualifications prescribed by the Government for the teaching staff for the proposed Secretarial course to be introduced in certain schools in the Province; and

“(a) The qualification prescribed for the post of Assistant is a pass in the B.Com. or D.Com. degree with shorthand and typewriting. He should, in addition, have undergone teachers' training.

"(b) Yes; Rs. 85-5-125-10-175 for those in Government high schools and Rs. 75-5-145 for those in high schools under local bodies and private managements."

SRI R. V. SWAMINATHAN:—"May I know whether the Government have received any representation from the B.Com. and D.Com. candidates that the scale of pay is not sufficient for them and if so what action has been taken?"

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—"I do not remember to have received any representation, Sir. Possibly it might have been received in the office. Government have not considered it necessary to raise the scales of pay, because they think that these are quite sufficient for them."
