Model High school,
Teachers' College, Saidapet,
21st July 1948.

From T. V. Subramania Ayyar,
Commercial Instructor,
Teachers' College, Saidapet.

Thro' The Principal,
Teachers' College, Saidapet.

Thro' The Headmaster,
Model High school, Saidapet.

Sir,

I beg to bring to your kind notice that after my retirement as Commercial Instructor, Teachers' College, Saidapet, from 15-1-48, I secured with effect from 17-6-48 a job as a part time commercial teacher in the newly started Sir M.Ct. Commercial school, Purusawalkam, a private institution, on Rs. 50/ p.m. I have to work there from 5.30 P.M. to 8 P.M. only. Since my taking up that job, the Government have been pleased to re-appoint me in my old post in the Teachers' College, Saidapet, till the end of this school year, and I have joined duty on 19-7-48. My part time job in the private commercial school, which is more like a private tuition, will continue for a long time and for a retired and experienced commercial instructor like me it is an easy and familiar job requiring neither preparation nor exertion. This extra work of mine, outside the regular school hours, does not and will not interfere with my legitimate school work. I, therefore, request you to be kind enough to permit me to retain this part-time job and receive a remuneration of Rs. 50/p.m. during the period of my re-employment. I may again assure you, sir, that this extra work will not in any way interfere with my regular school work which I do to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

Thanking you in anticipation,

Yours obediently,

T. V. Subramania Ayyar

Hon. Premier has recently minuted that if a retired officer is reemployed in private institutions, etc., his emoluments should be so regulated that his pension plus pay during such reemployment should not exceed ^{the} pay last drawn by him while in service. ^(i.e. on a par with reemployment under Govt) The retired Commercial Instructor in question is now reemployed by the Govt. in the Teachers' College, Saidapet and as such his emoluments ^(pay plus pension) during reemployment including his remuneration as a part-time Instructor ^{in a private school in Ponnasalam} will far exceed the pay last drawn by him while in service. This is opposed to the suggestion of H.Pr. at 'A' above. The reemployment in Govt. service is only temporary, and if the above principle is strictly applied, pay in the Teachers' College will have to be correspondingly reduced by the amount of his pay in ^{his} part-time job ^(in a private school) and this may not be worth ^{for him} while to continue as Instructor. In view of this, and as the private part-time job does not in any way affect his work under Govt., the condition at 'A' above may be waived in the present case, and the officer permitted to accept the remuneration of Rs 50 in addition to his pension, plus pay during re-employment under Govt. The E & P.H. Department may be requested to take orders of H.M(Fin) in circulation.
