R.O.C.No. 5-A2/48 dated 14th September, 1948.

SIR,

Contingencies--Office of the Registrar of Books, Madras--Payment of additional wages to the watchmen of the Translator's Office-- Sanction requested.

The Office of the Registrar of Books, Madras has no separate watchman. As this office is located in one end of the block occupied by the Office of the Translator to Government, the watchman of the latter has been taking care of the Registrar's Office also during the nights, for the past ten years. For this additional work he was being paid from the Registrar's office Rs. 2-8-0 a month and his total pay from both the offices did not exceed Rs. 15/- a month until January 1948.

2. As a result of the recent revision of menials' wages, the watchman is now getting Rs. 15/- a month (excluding Dearness allowance) from the Translator's office itself. This rate of pay being the maximum admissible to an unskilled menial with reference to item 37(1) of Appendix 7, Madras Finance Code, Volume II, the additional pay sanctioned to the watchman from the Registrar's office had to be withheld. Further he is reluctant to bear the additional responsibility for the small extra pay. As the watchman will have no incentive to take care of the Registrar's office unless he is reasonably remunerated for the additional work, and as it will be necessary to employ a separate watchman for the office on a higher rate of wages if the present arrangement is given up, it is proposed to pay from the Registrar's office a sum of Rs.5/- (Rupees five only) a month to the Watchman of the Translator's Office from 1.1.1948, who will thus be receiving a total basic pay of Rs.20/- a month from both the offices. I request that Government may kindly approve the proposal.

Yours faithfully,

P. M. i

 Pay 7 months!
 Note: Please see the letter from the D. P. 18 on pp. 1-3 of. Presumably, the watchman has been doing his ^{additional} duty pending sanction of his additional remuneration.
 Under the circumstances stated by the D. P. 18, his proposal to pay Rs 5/- per month to the watchman of the Translations Office for taking care of the Office of the Registrar of Books may be approved. This inducement

The draft ~~document~~ is for approval
 May be sent to the D. P. 18

It seems to be necessary to make watchman do his work properly and to see that burglaries of the kind which recently occurred in the S. P. 18 Office are prevented, if possible.
