Government were pleased to sanction, in their Order MS. No.236, Education dated 3rd February 1948, the provision of tea and light refreshments to members of certain Advisory Boards constituted by them to give advice on matters of educational policy. According to this G.O. such an expenditure can be incurred only in respect of the meetings of the following Boards.

- (i) Advisory Board for Basic Education. B2
- (ii) Provincial Advisory Board of Education. B1
- (iii) Standing Advisory Board for Technical Education. A

2. In this connection it is submitted that the need for the supply of light refreshments and tea is even greater when so many Committees and Boards meet in my office, which is situated in an isolated part of the City, and this is especially so when the members do not get even daily allowance. I therefore request that Government may be pleased to extend the concession to Committees and Boards which meet in my office subject of course to the same conditions as are prescribed in G.O. Ms. No.236, Education, Dated 3rd February 1948;

for DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.
