Sub: Elementary Education - Aided Schools Rules
regarding aid - Amendment to Rule 6 - Suggestions submitted -

While amending the Rules relating to aid to Ele.
Schools, the Government have amended in G.O. Ms.
No. 217 Edn., dated 29.1.'48, Rule 6 (a) of the Rules for aid wherein it is provided that the Dt. Educational Officer may order the suspension of a teacher or impose a fine not exceeding 10% of his pay for certain defects enumerated in the rule for which the teachers are responsible. I submit, in this connection, that it would be quite adequate to have the punishment of "fine" alone for teacher's irregularities or unsatisfactory work. In case any serious irregularity committed by a teacher, is noticed action can be taken against the teacher under Rule 154 M.E.R. or Rule 14 of the Rules for recognition of Elementary schools and this provision is quite sufficient.
Hence I submit that the provision made for "suspension of a teacher" may be deleted in sub.rule 6 (a) of the Rules for aid to all Elementary Schools for Director of Public Instruction.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently or as special the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item had been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(c) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the chapter on printing and proof correction in the Secretariat Office Manual.

(d) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or clerk concerned.

(e) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(f) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked special of urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Assistant Secretary with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Assistant Secretary any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished: it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Ministers or Advisers should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
