The Commission on the Status of Women, established in 1946, was the first of its kind. It was created by the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations to study, examine and make recommendations on the status of women. The Commission has since held numerous sessions, with the most recent being the 54th session in 2010.

The Commission's work is guided by the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), which was adopted in 1979. The Convention is a landmark treaty that sets out the principles and standards for the treatment of women. It has been ratified by over 110 countries, including the United States.

The Commission's mandate is broad, covering a wide range of issues related to women's rights. This includes issues such as gender equality, women's participation in decision-making, women's economic empowerment, and women's health and education. The Commission also works to promote the rights of women in conflict and post-conflict situations.

The Commission's work is carried out through a variety of mechanisms. These include the submission and review of reports from governments, the holding of public hearings, and the issuance of recommendations. The Commission also works closely with other UN agencies, such as the United Nations Development Fund (UNDP) and the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), to promote women's rights.

The Commission's work is essential for the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), which were adopted by the United Nations in 2015. The SDGs are a set of 17 goals that aim to address the world's most pressing challenges, including poverty, inequality, and climate change. Women's rights are a central part of the SDGs, and the Commission's work is crucial for ensuring that women are fully and equally included in the development process.

order no 2944 En 23.11.48.

The Commr, Connor up, is informed that the headmaster of the higher sch. school may be allowed to continue to do the ^{superintendence} supervisory work of the ~~lower~~ lower sch. schools under the control of the H.E.D., and that he may be paid the ~~conveyance~~ conveyance allowance of Rs 10 per

Sub:- ELEMENTARY EDUCATION - Coonoor Municipality - Supervision of elementary schools by the Headmaster, Higher Elementary schools.

Ref:- (1) From the Coonoor Municipal Council, Coonoor, No.B3.5623/48, dated 11-9-1948.

(2) Endorsement of the D.P.I. No.2859-B2/48, dated 6-10-1948.

According to a scheme formulated by the D.P.I. and approved by the Govt. for the supervision of elementary schools, the Municipal Council, Coonoor, was permitted to allow the headmaster of the higher elementary school to supervise the four lower elementary schools maintained by it and to pay him a conveyance allowance of Rs.10/- per mensem for the purpose.

2. In the letter above, the Commissioner has raised the question whether the Headmaster may be allowed to do supervision work in view of the recent orders issued in G.O.No.2056, Edn., dated 18-8-48. He is of the opinion that the headmaster has been discharging his duties as Supervisor efficiently. The Director does not recommend the continuance of the supervision work by the headmaster. The orders in the G.O. at (B) relate to appointment of regular supervisors under certain circumstances. In the case of Municipal Councils which are ^{not} eligible to employ a regular supervisor (like the Municipal Council, Coonoor) the system of supervision by a headmaster may be continued. For orders.

A draft memo is submitted below for approval.
