The draft order on p 3 ^{above} may be accepted, subject to the following remarks:-
H.P.R has minuted in another connection that when a pensioner gets reemployed under private institutions after retirement, the total emoluments viz pension plus pay should not exceed the pay last drawn while in service before retirement. It seems ^{deniable} necessary to obtain the above information in the first instance regarding the pay drawn by Miss Lazarus under memos B+C milks, and keep the pension in abeyance in whole or in part w.r.t the pay she is drawing under the B+C milks. ^{Consistent with the principle suggested by H.P.R.} (The case in due course will have to be circulated to H.M (Fini) and H.P.R also)

 The pay which Miss Lazarus is drawing in the B. & C. Mills is Rs. 425. If A at p.1 and is to be applied to her case, out of the pension of Rs. 261-15-0 sanctioned to her, only Rs. 125 shd. be paid to her and the balance (Rs. 136-15-0) held in abeyance until 1.3.50 or the expiry of the ^{period} date of her employment in the Mills, whichever is earlier.

Fin. may see before orders are taken in this.

Franker from the D.P.P. (one up employment - (A or p.2) or has legally enforced that a condition under (K) or all; (K) is bases, I think, as to principle that on their Mills not be allowed to 'operate' without effecting the way in which a refusal of permission can be based on the terms of the employment agreement. I do not think it is correct to say that the terms are not agreed to.

(In Mr. Vandyath's case, the Government has been allowed full pension)

Fin (Pen)

The principle underlying the Art 53-B of the C.S.R. is as set out at F on p.2 above. Having due regard to that principle the private employment of Miss E. Lazarus does not seem objectionable and may be agreed to. As regards the suggestion at A on p.1 above, it has since been decided not to pursue it further. Miss Lazarus may therefore draw whatever salary from Mr. B & C Mills in addition to her full pension. ~~E & P.H. may be requested to circulate the case to her (Fin) before issue of orders.~~

p.2 and

The position as set out by Secy. E & P.H. is entirely correct. I am sorry that Finance Dept. produced this red herring at p.1 c.f. The pension rules have not been changed and there is no ^{cause} need to refuse full pension in this case. H.P.'s suggestion was examined separately and it was pointed out that Govt. had no moral right to reduce the pension which a Govt. servant had earned & to which he was entitled, merely on account of private earnings. In the result that suggestion was not pursued ^{but} the rules regarding permission ^{to accept private} employment were made more strict to ensure that Govt. servants should not be influenced in their conduct while in Govt. service by the expectation of employment in a private firm after retirement. This is clearly not the case here and I do not think that H.M. (Fin) or H.R. is necessary on the matter of permission to accept employment. Full pension may also be sanctioned.
