No. Dated 19th November 1948.

Sub: Government Press - Emergency Appointment of Assistant Superintendents.

86734

It will be necessary during the period of my Home leave to appoint another temporary Assistant Superintendent under Rule 9 (a) (i) until Government pass ~~under~~ final orders on G.O. No. 2125 Edn., dated 26th October 1948 and the next qualified man on the list is Sri S. Krishnan, permanent Lino operator and temporary Deputy Overseer.

2. Mr. S. Krishnan started his career in the Government Press in the year 1932 as a Linotype operator and by keenness and hard work and sheer ability became one of the best operators in the Press establishment. Owing to misfortune in 1942 he had an accident on machine by which his hand was permanently disabled. He was thereafter taught machine room work and he proved himself both painstaking and so efficient that in management that he was appointed to the newly created temporary post of Deputy Overseer which he has held for more than 5 years with great ability and tact, his work has been exceptionally good, his planning and distribution of work through the department is first class, he has the ability to manage a difficult department most successfully, to direct and control labour and extract the maximum amount of work from his subordinates. He is fit to hold an executive post in any capacity.

3. I would request Government to sanction his appointment with effect from 22-11-1948.
