The Secy., M.P.S.C.

Sir,

M.E.S. - Post of Prof., Law College, Madras - Direct recruitment.

The post of Prof., Law College, Madras, which was advertised by the Commn. for direct recruitment/^{last year} and for appt. to which no suitable candidate was available (vide your letter No.4900-B1/47-7, d/- 5-11-47) continues to remain unfilled. As a purely tempy.

arrangement, the duties of the post are being carried on by an Addl. Part-time Lecturer who has been apptd.

in the college. That arrangement cannot be continued for long.

45 By G.O.No.1341-Edu., dated 26-5-48, the age-limit ~~prescribed~~ for direct recruitment as Prof., Law College, Madras, has been raised from 35 to 40 ^{years} in the expectation that the field of choice would be widened

~~xxxx~~ ~~breadth~~ and that a ^{person} suitable ~~might~~ be found without difficulty. I am directed to request that ~~xxxxx~~ the Commission will be so good as to advertise ^{in the Prof's post} the vacancy now, as a special case, specifying the altered age in its notfn., and ^{to} select a ~~xxx~~ suitable candidate. The notfn. need not insist on the applicants' being specialists in any branch or branches of Law but the candidate to be selected will have to take both B.L. and F.L. classes and teach Hindu Law for the B.L. and Constitutional Law for the F.L. classes.

I am also to request that the Commission may kindly send a copy of the notfn. to be pubd., with relevant particulars, to the Displaced Lawyers' Assn., Room No.156, 'P' Block, Raisin~~a~~ Road, New Delhi.

I am to say that in response to the Commission's advertisement inviting applications for one appointment of Professor, Law College, Madras, applications were received from six candidates of whom five were prima facie qualified. The Commission held the prescribed competitive examination on the 20th October 1948 in which the Principal, Law College, participated. One of the five candidates was found not qualified and none of the remaining four candidates was successful.

2. A copy of the Commission's Information for candidates was sent to the Displaced Lawyers' Association, New Delhi.

Yours faithfully,

The Commission has reported that six candidates applied, in response to its advert, for direct recruitment as Professor, Law College, Madras, that two of them were not qualified and that out of the remaining four came out successful at its examination.

At pages 13-15 N.F. of (G), the g/n. of making the post attractive was considered. Of the two methods suggested - (1) raising the age-limit and (2) revising the scale of pay, the first alone was accepted. Still a suitable person could not be found. This depts. may therefore recommend that the scale of pay of the post may now be altered - in Rs. 300-30 1/2 - 360-40 1/2 - 600 to Rs. 500-50 1/2 - 500 (the scale applicable to the Vice-Principal of the Law College) - as an incentive to the right type of men to apply. Fin. may see for remarks before on.

Please see the notes on pp. 1 & 2 above.

Attention is invited in this connection to 7 in. notes on p. 14 of G.O. NO. 1344 Edn. D 26.5.48. As noted therein, this depts. may suggest, that revised applications may be called for offering a starting salary of Rs. 520 in its scale itself.

I think Finance has to agree to the scale. Anything less will not attract a competent teacher away from practice at the bar. H.M. (Fin.) may see, & H.P.
