* 108 Q.—SRI B. BHIMA RAO: Will the Hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state—

(a) the steps taken by the Government in order to implement the recommendation of the Housing Committee to establish hostels for the students studying in the City of Madras;

(b) whether the Government are aware of the fact that the accommodation provided for in the hostels attached to some of the colleges is quite insufficient for all the students studying therein; and

(c) whether the Government are taking any steps to construct hostels or for securing accommodation and boarding to those students who are not able to secure admission into hostels attached to colleges?

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—

"(a) Government have decided that the question of implementing the recommendation of the Committee as far as they relate to hostels should be deferred.

"(b) So far as aided colleges in the City are concerned, there is no definite information about the sufficiency or otherwise of the accommodation provided for students in the respective hostels. In the case of Government colleges in the City it is true that accommodation in the hostels attached to some of these colleges falls short of the needs of the students.

Recently, the Government have started a hostel in "Amir Manzil" in Mount Road, for city college students who are not able to get accommodation in hostels attached to colleges in which they are studying.

"As regards women students, there is a proposal to construct a hostel in the compound of the Lady Willingdon Training College for Women. The Government have also opened a hostel for women in the 'Retreat', Kilpauk."

SRI B. BHIMA RAO :—" Are the Government aware that several students in the city colleges experience considerable difficulty in securing hostel accommodation?"

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR :—" Yes, there is difficulty for hostel accommodation in the city."

SRI B. BHIMA RAO :—" Will the Government secure more buildings for use as hostels?"

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR :—" The Government have already taken the 'Amir Manzil' in Mount Road and are on the look-out for suitable buildings. If any of the aided colleges in the city are anxious to start hostels, the Government will help them."

SRI R. SURYANARAYANA RAO :—" Will the Government find out whether there is sufficient hostel accommodation for students of aided colleges in the city?"

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR :—" Generally there is insufficiency of hostel accommodation. But Government have not got the exact particulars."

SRI R. SURYANARAYANA RAO :—" Is it not the duty of the Government to provide adequate hostel accommodation as the students are put to great inconvenience?"

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR :—" The Government are trying to do what all they can in the matter."

SRI R. SURYANARAYANA RAO :—" Is there a system by which accommodation is guaranteed to a certain number of students depending on the strength of the colleges?"

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR :—" No, Sir. When aided colleges want to build hostels and apply to the Government for aid, the Government render help wherever possible."

SRI R. SURYANARAYANA RAO :—" Has the University sent any report about the insufficiency of hostel accommodation for students?"

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR :—" It is difficult to answer the question without notice. But we have not got any such report as far as I know."
