As the appointment of Sri K. Ramanathan Nair as stenographer in the Indian Legation at Bangkok is considered by the Govt. of India as one of deputation, there is no objection to allowing this period of service on deputation for increment in the typist's pay by relaxing the provisions of F.R. 26(b). The question of his confirmation in the department may also be considered as he is considered to have been on deputation under the Govt. of India.
