Secondary and Training Schools.

Qualification.

Scale of pay.

Local Bodies.

Secondary Schools.

A title conferred by the University in Oriental Learning or a degree with an Oriental language as special subject.

Rs 45--2/2--75 (for complete H. Schools with half their work in Forms IV to VI).

Others 30-2/2-50.

2. It will be observed from the ~~above~~ statement that even though ~~the~~ pandits and munshis should possess the same qualification both for the employment in Government institutions and ~~for~~ ⁱⁿ schools under local bodies, the scales of pay (particularly higher scales of pay for pandits in local bodies) are ~~however~~ different. The circumstances under which the different scales of pay (particularly higher scales of pay for pandits ^{in the service of} local bodies) were adopted for pandits ~~in~~ in Government institutions and in schools under local bodies, are explained in the notes on pp 3-4 of G.O.No. 434 Education, dated the 23rd March 1943. In the case of ^{but} High Schools a lower scale for pandits was considered sufficient as they would have chances of promotion to the higher scales of pay in force in colleges. As there was no such promotion in the case of institutions under local bodies, a higher scale of pay of Rs. 45--75 was fixed.

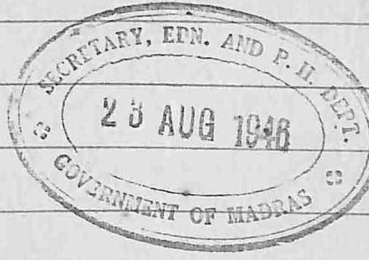

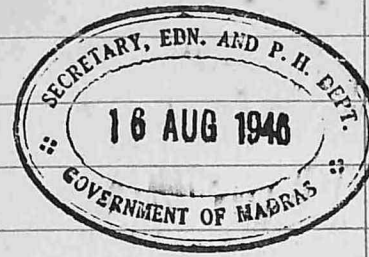

3. A suggestion was made ^{pay of} that the pandits in schools under local bodies might be revised from Rs. 45--2/2--75 to Rs. 45--3/2--75 and the latter scale ^{might be} adopted for pandits in Government institutions also. ^{but the suggestion was not approved in Council} The then Adviser for Education viewed ^{with favour} the proposal to revise the pay of pandits under local body institutions. As the First Adviser did not concur in his view, the whole proposal was dropped.

4. A draft answer is submitted below for approval. The file may be circulated to H.M. (Education).

H. M. has suggested that the pandits and Munshis possessing the same qualification as Asst. Lecturers and school ^{assistants} should be on identical scales of pay and the matter is under consideration separately.
