Rec. 265/46-B.

PANCHAYAT BOARD.
CHINNAMANUR P. O., MADURA DT.
29 AUG. 1947
Dated 26-8-47.

Resubmitted through the District Panchayat Officer, Madurai.

The copy of the G.O. sanctioning the grant for 1946-47 was received in this office on 6-12-46. It appears the claim was first preferred by my predecessor (who was in-charge of this Board till 28-4-47) to the sub-treasury officer at Uthamapalayam in accordance with the usual practice. But the sub-treasury officer having not received any instructions for adjusting the amount due to the Board could not make the payment. In the meanwhile the Executive Officer was advised to address the Treasury Deputy collector in the matter and it was accordingly done in this office Rec no. 265/46-B dated 21-2-47. The Treasury Deputy collector in his endorsement dated 26-2-47 called for the relevant vouchers & bills and also wanted the President's requisition. The Executive officer in the hope of getting the grant adjusted anyhow by the sub-treasury officer at Uthamapalayam before 31-3-47 treated the Treasury Deputy Collector's

P.O.

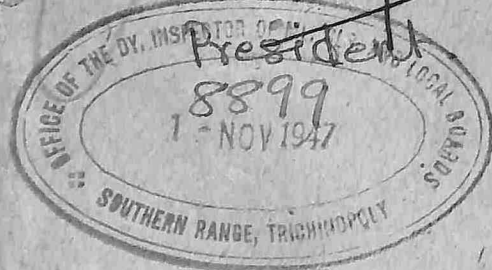

Communication with some indifference and had been frequently reminding the sub-treasury officer at ulthamapalayam about the grant. But he was disappointed to see on the last day of the official year that his waiting had been fruitless.

After I assumed charge of my office here I requested the Treasury Deputy collector to see his way through paying the grant; but I was advised to address the Government. Hence my present reference.

I am submitting herewith the Board's resolution regarding the reallocation of the lapsed grant as required by you. p. 5 ante

The material has a mottled, greyish-brown appearance with some lighter patches and a rough, fibrous texture. The left edge is irregular and torn, revealing a lighter, possibly white, inner layer. There are some faint, dark marks and fibers visible throughout the material.
