Rule	Suggestions	Remarks.
53 (ii)	The last sentence may be omitted. If after spent on the building.	The rule regarding "sanction grant" may come after the examination of Title Rule 54 (iii)
54 (ii)	For the existing rule, substitute the following:- Except in cases where the management has been exempted from the execution of the mortgage deed or a deed of acceptance, no grant or advance shall be paid, before it proves to the entire satisfaction of the Government Solicitor, its title to the property in question and its right to mortgage the same to Government in respect of the grant by providing all the connected title deeds and before the Government Solicitor declares the title of the management to the property to be in order. X	Two sentences are made into one. The words "or advance" have been added.
54 (iii)	After "Rule 54(ii)", the following may be added as "Rule 54 (iii)". Grants:- After the completion of the scheme, the Correspondent will be required to furnish a certificate in the prescribed form (Appendix N) signed by the Architect or Engineer in charge of the work, to the effect that the scheme has been completed generally in accordance with plans and specifications which were approved by the Director and another certificate signed by the correspondent himself, specifying the total amount actually spent on the scheme.	The words "scheme" is used to indicate both, "Building and playground" Last sentence of Rule 53 (ii) is repeated at this place as this is more appropriate after the execution of the mortgage.
54 (iii)	Advance:- The grants sanctioned for the construction of buildings under this chapter may be paid in part as the work progresses on the production of the following:-- (a) A certificate from the qualified engineer in charge that the construction is proceeding on sound lines in accordance with the approved plans, specifying the stage of the work and his estimated value of the work done. (b) A certificate signed by the Correspondent himself specifying the actual amount spent on the construction and that the grant claimed is not more than one half of the actual expenditure incurred towards the construction	The word "construction" is used as "advance" is permissible only in respect of "Building schemes" Advance grant or Part payment may be based on half the amount mentioned in these two certificates.

54(iv) Legal charges. The existing 2nd para of "Rule 54(ii)" may be renumbered as (iv) under "Legal charges" Solicitor's fees and grant on legal charges are mentioned under "Title examination". This is given a fresh number.

54 (v) Bills Rule 54 (iii) may be renumbered as (v) under the head "Bills"
