Sir,

ENCLOSURES _____

SUB:- Subsidy = Secondary Schools under local bodies = Compensation in lieu of fee income foregone = Children of women teachers in pensionable service = application for grant of subsidy = 1947-48.

REF:- G.O.No.MS.2390, Law (Education) dated 24th November 1930.

Hitherto, subsidies to local bodies that claimed compensation for the loss in fee income as a result of the remission of fees on behalf of the children of women teachers under G.O.No.677, Law Education, dated 12th April 1930 were being granted only on the basis of the standard rates of fee irrespective of the actual rates of fees obtaining in the schools concerned and only 8 instalments were taken into consideration though they were levying more than eight instalments. But this year, the number of instalments have been permitted by the Government to be raised to 10 in all the Secondary Schools uniformly and some of the local bodies have obtained permission from Government for levying fees at higher than the standard rate. Government may, therefore, be pleased to state whether the subsidy due to local bodies on this account may, with effect from the school year 1947-48 be paid on the basis of 10 instalments of fees at the actual rates obtaining in the schools concerned.

Subsidy - Secondary schools under local bodies - Remission of fees on behalf of the children of women teachers. Fee income foregone. Compensation please see the reference from the D.P.I in the c.f. He states that subsidies to local bodies that claimed compensation for the loss in fee income as a result of the remission of fees on behalf of the children of women teachers under G.O. No 677 Law (Ed) d 12. 4.1930 were being granted only on the basis of the standard rates and instalments only ^{were taken into account} irrespective of the actual rates of fees ^{of the number of instalments} levied in the schools. The number of instalments has been raised to 10 and as provided out by the D.P.I, some of the local bodies have been permitted to levy fees at higher than the standard rates. As the number of instalments has been raised to ten uniformly in all the secondary

Under para 2 of go. no 975 Edu 8 10.5.47, the teaching grant to secondary schools under local bodies should be assessed according to the procedure laid down in rule 32 of the Grant-in-Aid Code. Under this rule, the compensation for expenditure on scholarships + fee remissions is limited to 10 per cent of the fee income reckoned at standard rates. Even for purposes of calculation of net cost, income from tuition fees at standard rates only should be taken into account even though the actual number of instalments of fees levied should be adopted in the case of local bodies and not eight as in the case of aided schools. Even according to the DPs ~~also~~ report, the compensation was hitherto worked out only
