As orders on the question referred to at A above are likely to come in a day or two, it does not appear necessary to sanction the temporary staff asked for by the S.G.P. —

E.A.P. H. NO. 10
12172/F/48-1
12-3-48

Submits that the sanction for the employment of the temporary staff of 3 despatch clerks, one despatcher & one attender has already expired on 29.2.48 and the S.G.P. has asked for the employment of 2 despatch clerks, one despatcher and one attender for six months from 1.3.48 or till orders are passed on reorganisation of accounts & despatch sections. This was kept L.O. as it was thought that orders on the reorganisation file would be issued very soon. The file is still in circulation. The reduced staff asked for by the S.G.P. may be sanctioned for a period of 3 months (instead of six months) or till orders are issued on the reorganisation file whichever ever is earlier. Draft order is for approval. Finance may see us.
