Draft answer

Q.NO.868. Will the Hon'ble the Minister for Education be pleased to state:-

(a) How are admissions now being made in the Government Colleges?

(b) Whether the Government will consider appointing of non-official committees for admissions?

" All the applications received are classified in the first instance according to the class and group for which admission is sought.

Then the applications in each group are classified according to Community - Brahmins, Non-Brahmins, Muslims, Christians and Scheduled Castes. The applicants in each one of these Communities are further arranged according to the marks obtained in the immediate previous public examination in a descending order. Selection is finally made on the basis of this arrangement and the Govt orders on the subject from time to time.

Admissions are made mainly on the following basis with slight modifications, to suit the special needs of the Government Colleges.

Q.NO.668. Will the Hon'ble the Minister for Education be pleased to state:-

(a) How are admissions now being made in the Government Colleges?

(b) Whether the Government will consider appointing of non-official committees for admissions?

Admissions are made mainly on the following basis with slight modifications to suit the special needs of a particular college:

" All the applications received are classified in the first instance according to the class and group for which admission is sought.

The applications in each group are classified according to Community—Brahmins, Non-Brahmins, Muslims, Christians and Scheduled Castes. The applications in each one of these communities are further arranged according to the marks obtained in the immediately previous public examination in a descending order.

Selection is finally made on the basis of this arrangement in accordance with the Government orders on the subject from time to time.
